9 a.m.

*St. John's Cathedral
The Episcopal Diocese of Florida
Jacksonville, Florida*

THE HOLY EUCHARIST
ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY
November 1, 2015 - 9 a.m.

A joyous and warm welcome to our visitors and guests. Please know how happy our Cathedral community is to have you worship with us. We'd love to know our guests, so please fill out a visitor card and drop it in the offering plate as it comes by.

Welcome

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant continues

There is one Body and one Spirit;
People There is one hope in God's call to us;
Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
People One God and Father of all.

In Procession, Celebration Hymnal 415 "We Are Called to Be God's People"

Children age four through third grade follow the Cross in procession to Children's Chapel in Cummings Chapel. The children rejoin their families at the Baptism.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant continues

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The People are seated.

The Lesson

Isaiah 25:6-9

Lector A reading from the Book of Isaiah.

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence for reflection follows the reading.

The Gospel

John 11:32-44

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The People are seated.

The Sermon

The Very Reverend Kate Moorehead

You should find a piece of paper in your bulletin with a picture of candles on it. Please PRINT the names of your loved ones who have died onto the back of this sheet. These names will be collected after the sermon and read during the distribution of communion. Phonetic assistance is appreciated. Please do not fold the paper.

HOLY BAPTISM

The People remain seated as the Candidate and Sponsors come forward.

Presentation of the Candidate

The Candidate is presented by her Parents and Godparents. The Celebrant says

The Candidate for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

Parents and Godparents I present Molly Suzann Gallup to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

When all have been presented the Celebrant asks the Sponsors

Will you be responsible for seeing that the child you present is brought up in the Christian faith and life?

Parents and Sponsors I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you by your prayers and witness help this child to grow into the full stature of Christ?

Parents and Sponsors I will, with God's help.

The Celebrant asks the following questions of the parents and godparents who speak on behalf of the infants and younger children.

Question Do you renounce Satan and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?
Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce the evil powers of this world which corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?
Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce all sinful desires that draw you from the love of God?
Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Savior?

Answer I do.

Question Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love?

Answer I do.

Question Do you promise to follow and obey him as your Lord?

Answer I do.

After all have been presented, the Celebrant addresses the congregation, saying

Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support this person in her life in Christ?

People We will.

The Celebrant then says

Let us stand and join with those who are committing themselves to Christ and renew our own baptismal covenant.

The Baptismal Covenant

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Prayers for the Candidate

The Celebrant then says to the people

Let us now pray for this person who is to receive the Sacrament of new birth.

The Clergy, Candidate and Sponsors process to the Baptismal font.

Cantor Deliver her, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Cantor Open her heart to your grace and truth.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Cantor Fill her with your holy and life-giving Spirit.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Cantor Keep her in the faith and communion of your holy Church.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Cantor Teach her to love others in the power of the Spirit.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Cantor Send her into the world in witness to your love.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Cantor Bring her to the fullness of your peace and glory.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

The Celebrant says

Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and for ever. Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, the Celebrant touches the water

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Baptism

The candidate is presented by name for Baptism and Chrismation, and is presented with a Baptismal candle, a sign of the Light of Christ within her.

I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

You are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised her to the new life of grace. Sustain her, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give her an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

The Celebrant then says,

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

Celebrant and People

We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The Peace

The People stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Clergy and People greet each other in the name of the Lord.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer II from Enriching Our Worship I

The People stand.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

The Celebrant and people sing

The Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of 6 pow - er and might, heaven and earth are 11 full of your glor - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 17 Bless - ed is he who comes in the 22 name of the Lord. Ho - san - na
 26 in the high - est. Ho - san - na
 30 in the high - est.

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues.

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to sing,

The Celebrant and People sing

Simon Dixon

Our Fa-ther who art in hea-ven hal-lowed be thy name. Thy king-dom come, thy will be done on earth as in hea-ven.
Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and for-give our sins. As we for-give those who sin a- gainst us. Lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but deli-ver us from e-vil. For thine is the king-dom and the pow-er and the glo-ry. For e-ver and e-ver: A-men.
For e-ver and e-ver: A-men.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant People

God of promise, you have prepared a banquet for us.
Happy are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.

The Celebrant continues

The Gifts of God for the People of God. (Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.)

All people are invited forward to share in our communion—if you receive the bread and/or wine, please kneel or stand at the altar rail. If you are not yet baptized, please kneel or stand at the altar rail with your arms crossed over your chest for a blessing from one of the clergy. You are also invited to receive prayers and anointing with holy oil in one of our transept chapels (Ascension to the south, and Holy Communion to the north) where anointers wait to pray with you.

The Reading of the Necrology

During the distribution of communion, we will read the names of our loved ones who have gone on ahead of us to heaven. They are our saints and we believe that they are spiritually present with us as we receive the body and blood of Christ.

The Sending of Lay Eucharistic Visitors

Following communion, Eucharistic Visitors to our homebound members may be sent forth with the following prayer.

Celebrant In the name of St. John’s Cathedral, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ’s Body and Blood.

People We who are many are one body because we all share one bread, one cup.

Invitation to the Children

All children are invited to come up to the front of the church to process out with the choristers and be escorted to their Sunday School classes immediately following the service.

The Postcommunion Prayer

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant blesses the people.

In Procession, Celebration Hymnal 433 “Rise Up, O Church of God”

The Dismissal

People Alleluia, alleluia! Let us go forth to give, serve and love the Lord fearlessly.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!

Youth group “lost in a-maze-ment” over life-sized maze

“I just made a right,” I think to myself. “Should I go right again, or is that even a real path in front of me?”

Have you ever had the experience of being lost in a maze made of corn (or something like it) in the dark? That’s how St. John’s Cathedral youth spent the evening of Saturday, October 17. We met up at the cathedral, piled into four cars, and made our way to Elkton, Florida, the home of Sykes and Cooper Farms and their amazing “corn” maze. Fifteen youth and five adults enjoyed food, fun, and fellowship right in our own back yard.

Sykes and Cooper Farms’ corn maze is actually cut into sorghum. According to the event website (www.sycofarms.com) sorghum is “a crop used primarily for cattle feed. Sorghum looks similar to corn but does not actually have corn cobs on it. The reason sorghum is used instead of corn is because it is stronger and more tolerant to Florida’s unpredictable weather.” Honestly, we couldn’t tell the difference!

Our youth group had a wonderful time at Sykes and Cooper Farms!

In addition to the maze there was traditional fair food, like funnel cakes (yum!), games for kids like duck races and a (fake) cow milking contest, and chickens, goats, pigs, and one very noisy donkey. The night ended with a communal hay ride pulled by a John Deere tractor. We even ran into some of our fellow St. John’s parishioners there in Elkton! It was a fun and enjoyable evening with friends and family, the weather was beautiful...and the corn was tall. So much fun was had by youth and adults that I think we’ll put this on the calendar for next year as well. A special thanks to Devanne Jones for the idea and coordinating the trip, and to Jim and Martha Cox and Megan Cochran who helped chaperone.

Sykes and Cooper have hosted the community with their corn maze since 2010. Visit their website and plan a visit when you can!

In Christ’s love,

Carl +

Pledge Appreciation Event, November 7

In celebration of our Breakthrough: Give Fearlessly pledge season, we invite all members who have made their pledge to join us for a special evening with champagne and chocolates on Saturday, November 7 at 5 p.m. in Taliaferro Hall to thank you for supporting the ministry and mission of St. John’s. We will conclude the celebration with a candlelight prayer and blessing in the cathedral. Please RSVP to Sue Engemann at sue@jaxcathedral.org or 632-9104 ext. 24.

Towards a Better Understanding of Dementia

Currently 5 million people have a diagnosis of dementia, and that number is expected to double in the next 15 years. In spite of these numbers many people really don’t have a clear understanding about some basic aspects of this condition. If you would like to know more about dementia, its causes, how it is diagnosed, and other dementia related questions, then join us for a presentation on this relevant subject next Sunday, November 8 at noon in Ingram Lounge. A light lunch will be provided. Our presenter is Robert Trenholm, Gerontology Educator at Baptist Health’s AgeWell Institute.

CATHEDRAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL FOR VESTRY NOMINATIONS AND CONVENTION DELEGATES

The Vestry bylaws provide for a nominating committee to nominate candidates for vacancies on the vestry as well as candidates for the offices of Delegate to the Diocesan Convention.

Qualifications for Vestry members (5 to be elected): A Vestry nominee must be a communicant of St. John's Cathedral in good standing for a period of at least 12 months prior to election; if a nominee has served two full terms (for a total of six years), there must be a two-year break before he or she may be nominated again; must be actively involved in the ministry of the Parish; must be willing to accept active leadership, including responsibility for decision making that represents the entire Parish; must, if called upon, serve on the boards of affiliated corporations of the Cathedral; must be willing to invest the time necessary in the ministry of leadership, including attendance at worship, Vestry meetings and other scheduled Vestry activities, special events, and satellite activities; and must be otherwise eligible. In addition to the above qualifications contained in the bylaws, the Vestry believes that nominees for service for the next three-year term should possess special skills, gifts and talents in visionary and strategic thinking, be courageous, and have skills in fiscal planning and policy.

Diocesan Convention Delegates (2 to be elected): Per the St. John's Parish by-laws, the Sr. Warden fills one of the 5 delegate positions. The remaining four convention delegates serve a two year term, with one or two rotating off each year. At the 2016 Annual Parish Meeting, we will elect two delegates and two alternates for the 2017 diocesan convention. It is critically important that you obtain the permission of your nominee before submitting his or her name to a Nominating Committee member. (Please note: the By-Laws have been amended so that parishioners choose Vestry members by election at the annual meeting rather than through a selection (lottery) process.) Send nominations to Helen Likins, Communications Coordinator at hlikins@jaxcathedral.org. Nominations will be forwarded to and reviewed by the nominating committee members: Bill Erwin, Lynda Erwin, Faye Wisner, Ryan Uitti, Robert Hyde, Jim Jamison, Bonnie Hardman and Hud Berrey.

Feed the Homeless at Sulzbacher

Monday, November 2. Dinner preparation begins at 2 p.m. and is served at 6 p.m. Please call Don Wucker at 398-4776 for more information.

Men's Grill & Chill, Monday, November 2 at 6 p.m.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew invites all men of the cathedral to join us for a fellowship dinner in Taliaferro Hall. Bring your own steak (or chicken, or fish or veggie burger) to cook and a drink. The Brotherhood will provide a starch, vegetable, salad and bread. We suggest a donation of $3. Men, please consider bringing your sons with you, regardless of age. This is a monthly opportunity for all the men of the cathedral to gather, so please join us!

Bookstore Specials

Come visit our bookstore next to the reception area before and after Sunday services. You can also shop during the week. Open from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on weekdays. Coming soon: a new selection of chocolate Advent calendars are on the way, including a color-it-yourself calendar with colored pencils and a 3D calendar! These are great gift items and tools to use during the Advent season.

FALL SUNDAY MORNING CLASSES

All Sunday morning classes begin at 10 a.m.!

► NO DEAN'S FORUM THIS SUNDAY - Celebrating the History of St. John's Cathedral starts in Taliaferro Hall next Sunday. Speakers will rotate between clergy and guest speakers, covering various aspects of the cathedral's history, including its stained glass windows and its involvement in the founding of the Episcopal School of Jacksonville.

► Centering Prayer, Room 301
This is a time in community to experience centering prayer as well as explore appropriate readings. All are invited.

► Classes for children and youth are also held at this time in various locations. The nursery is also available.

+Prayers of the People+

The Church, especially for the Church in Canterbury, for John, Charles and Dorsey, our bishops, for Michael, our presiding bishop, for Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, for all ministers, and for the mission of the church.

The Nation and all in authority including Barack, our President; Rick, our Governor; and Lenny, our Mayor. (To see our full prayer list, please pick up a copy at the back of the church.)
