Celebrating the life of St. Francis of Assisi

Dear Friends,

St. Francis of Assisi, a devout 12th century friar, looked at a blade of grass and saw God's handiwork. He gazed upon a sunset and would cry at the beauty of God's creation. He saw the trees as his brothers and the birds as his sisters. People in his own day thought Francis was crazy, but now we have come to know that he was wiser than most of us.

Today, on the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi, we celebrate his life by blessing pets at the 9 a.m. service, giving thanks for a saint who taught us what it means to love all of God's creation. Let us try to be more like Francis and remember to care and be thankful for this beautiful earth that God has entrusted to us.

In Christ's love

The Very Reverend
Kate Moorehead,
Dean
