Introit

Hide Not Thou Thy Face

Richard Farrant

Hide not Thou Thy face from us, O Lord, and cast not off Thy servants in Thy displeasure; for we confess our sins unto Thee, and hide not our unrighteousness. For Thy mercy's sake, deliver us from all our sins.

THE WORD OF GOD

In Procession, The Great Litany

Michael Miller, cantor

The People's responses are in italics.

O God the Father, Creator of heaven and earth,
Have mercy upon us.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the World,
Have mercy upon us.

O God the Holy Ghost, Sanctifier of the faithful,
Have mercy upon us.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, one God,
Have mercy upon us.

For the 5.9 million children under the age of 5 who have died in the last year from treatable causes.
Have mercy upon us.

For the 21,000 people who die every day from hunger.
Have mercy upon us.

For the 1.2 billion people who live on less than $1 per day.
Have mercy upon us.

For the victims of storms and other natural disasters.
Have mercy upon us.

For the victims of war, terrorism, and violence.
Have mercy upon us.

For all poor and neglected persons who are unemployed and looking for work.
Have mercy upon us.

For the homeless and the destitute, the old and the sick, for prostitutes, drug addicts, the mentally ill and all who have none to care for them.
Have mercy upon us.

For reconciliation among peoples of all races and creeds, that we may know your peace.
Have mercy upon us.

For peace in the Middle East: Turkey, Israel, Syria, Jordan, Egypt, Yemen, Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan, and Pakistan.
Have mercy upon us.

For peace in Africa: Somalia, Libya, Sudan, South Sudan, and Nigeria.
Have mercy upon us.

For peace in North Korea.
Have mercy upon us.

For peace in Ukraine.
Have mercy upon us.

For people in every land who live with injustice, terror, disease, and death as their constant companions.
Have mercy upon us.

We pray that you will bless and watch over this cathedral and its ministries.
Have mercy upon us.

We pray that you will draw all people to your presence.

Have mercy upon us.

Give us courage to face the challenges of our time and build your kingdom in the days to come.

Have mercy upon us.

We pray that you would change the hearts of all who fear and run from your presence.

Have mercy upon us.

We pray that you would guide and bless the President of the United States, the governor, the mayor and all others who serve in government.

Have mercy upon us.

We pray that you would teach us how to truly repent and change our lives, forgiving us of our sins and granting us the gift of your Holy Spirit.

Have mercy upon us.

We pray that you would bless our enemies and give us the courage to forgive them.

Have mercy upon us.

Son of God, we beseech thee to hear us.

Son of God, we beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world

Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world.

Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world.

Grant us thy peace.

O Christ, hear us.

O Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The People are seated.

The Lesson

Romans 10:8b-13

Lector A Reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

"The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence for reflection follows the reading.

The Psalm is read in unison.

Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, * abides under the shadow of the Almighty.

He shall say to the Lord, "You are my refuge and my stronghold, * my God in whom I put my trust."

Because you have made the Lord your refuge, *
and the Most High your habitation,

There shall no evil happen to you, *
neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over you, *
to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you in their hands, *
lest you dash your foot against a stone.

You shall tread upon the lion and adder; *
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.

Because he is bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver him; *
I will protect him, because he knows my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; *
I am with him in trouble; I will rescue him and bring him to honor.

With long life will I satisfy him, *
and show him my salvation.

Hymn 142

"Lord, who throughout these forty days"

St. Flavian

The Gospel

Luke 4:1-13

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'" Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'" Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'" Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Very Reverend Kate Moorehead

A period of silence for reflection follows the sermon.

The People stand.

The Nicene Creed

The Celebrant and People say

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Peace

All stand as the Celebrant says

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People

And also with you.

The Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome and Announcements

THE HOLY COMMUNION

As the Altar is prepared for Communion, representatives of the congregation collect the offerings of the People.

The Offertory

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace

S. S. Wesley

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee. The darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day: the darkness and the light to Thee are both alike. God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee. For Thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory, for evermore.

-Isaiah 26: 3

The People stand when the offerings are brought forward and placed on the Altar.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

The Lord be with you.

People

And also with you.

Celebrant

Lift up your hearts.

People

We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Father, you made the world and love your creation. You gave your Son Jesus Christ to be our Saviour. His dying and rising have set us free from sin and death.

And so we gladly thank you, with saints and angels praising you, and singing:

The Celebrant and People sing

Hymn S-114

Healey Willan

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee, the darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day: the darkness and the light to Thee are both alike. God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. O let my soul live, and it shall praise Thee. For Thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory, for evermore.

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

We praise and bless you, loving Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you. He broke the bread, gave it to them and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine. Again he praised you, gave it to them and said: "Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did, in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross. Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Great is the mystery of faith:

The Celebrant and People sing

Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth. Look with favor on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, O loving Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

The Celebrant and People sing the Fraction Anthem.

Hymnal S-158

Healey Willan

The Prayer of Humble Access

The Celebrant and People

We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

The Celebrant continues

The gifts of God for the People of God. (Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.)

The Lord's Table is open to all. Baptized persons are welcome to receive communion. Unbaptized persons are invited to the altar to receive a blessing. To signify that you do not desire communion, please cross your arms over your chest, and a priest will administer a blessing. You are also invited to receive prayers and anointing with holy oil in one of our transept chapels (Ascension to the south, and Holy Communion to the north) where anointers wait to pray with you.

Music at Communion

Organ	Eleven Chorale Preludes V. Schmücke dich, o liebe Seele	Johannes Brahms
Hymn 337	“And now, O Father, mindful of the love”	Unde et memores
Motet	Adoramus te, Christe	G. P da Palestrina

CHRIST, we do all adore Thee, and we praise Thee for ever, for on the Holy Cross hast Thou redeemed the world from sin.

The Sending of Lay Eucharistic Visitors

Following communion, Eucharistic Visitors to our homebound members may be sent forth with the following prayer.

Celebrant	In the name of St. John's Cathedral, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's Body and Blood.
People	We who are many are one body because we all share one bread, one cup.

Postcommunion Prayer

The Celebrant says

Let us pray.

The People kneel. The Celebrant and People say

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant blesses the people.

In Procession, Hymn 563	“Go forward, Christian soldier”	Lancashire
Dismissal	Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Cathedral Announcements

Be a Family Promise volunteer this Lent

Dear Friends,

Some of the faces of homelessness may surprise you. Many look just like you and me: hard working men and women who have families but temporarily can't make ends meet. For the past five years, St. John's Cathedral has been helping these families through our partnership with Family Promise of Jacksonville.

From Sunday, March 6 – Sunday, March 13, three homeless families will stay here at the cathedral and sleep upstairs in our classrooms on the second and third floors. During the day, the families will go to the Family Promise offices and spend the day either working or working to find jobs, and their children are in daycare or catch the bus to go to school. We host Family Promise families three times a year at the cathedral. Volunteers are critical to welcome and feed the families during their stay with us. You can help by shopping for groceries, fixing an evening meal, being an overnight host or just sharing some fellowship time with the families.

I have been blessed to be part of the cathedral's Family Promise ministry and to meet the families over a daily meal, talk with the moms and dads, and listen to the children share about their day at school. I have come to appreciate and respect the challenges that these families face, but I have also shared in the joy when these same families transition into their own apartment or home. More than 80% of the families in the program transition from homelessness to permanent stability.

You can help a family experiencing homelessness by volunteering next month during Family Promise week. Prepare to be surprised and blessed.

God's peace,

*Gloria Miller,
Director of Program Development*

Cathedral Announcements

Lenten Evensong and Service of Music today at 5 p.m.

Join us today at 5 p.m. here at St. John's Cathedral for this beautiful service, sung by the Cathedral Choir. Music will include selections by Henry Purcell, Anton Bruckner and others.

Children's Chapel News

Last Sunday at Children's Chapel, children participated in "burying the alleluia." This practice reflects the omission of alleluia from the liturgy during the penitential season of Lent. The alleluia is "resurrected" at Easter.

Kudos to Ella Rae Adloff, Katelyn Altman and Caitlyn Scheider for helping the younger children with the "burying of the alleluia." The plot in the Dean's garden outside of Cummings Chapel is beautifully designed and decorated. You are invited to come by and take a look.

Join a Lenten prayer group!

This Lenten season, we invite you to join a prayer group to be in relationship with God, and others, to explore the grace of God in small community. Groups of four people will be assigned and instructed on how to gather weekly during Lent, spend time getting to know each other, share concerns, and offer them to God in prayer. We hope you will join us in this transformative experience. For more information or to join a prayer group during Lent, please contact Sue Engemann, Director of Parish Life at sue@jaxcathedral.org, or call 356-5507, ext. 24 if you are interested.

Civil Discourse Forum Next Sunday

This year's cathedral theme, "Courageous Relationships," includes the ability to have civil discourse about difficult issues. St. John's Cathedral invites cathedral members and friends to participate in the first of a series of deliberative forums on Sunday, February 21 at noon. A luncheon will precede the 90-minute forum. This first forum will address economic opportunity. Deliberative forums use a method of civil discourse that requires participants to express their concerns, carefully listen to others who hold different opinions, and work together toward potential solutions that reflect participants' common agreement and judgments. RSVPs are appreciated. Please call the church office at 356-5507 to RSVP. You can see the material we will be using in this forum on our website at jaxcathedral.org.

AgeWell Workshop Next Sunday

Join us in Ingram Lounge at noon on Sunday, February 21 as members of the pharmacy team at the Baptist AgeWell Center discuss how you can prevent problems with your medicines or your loved one's medicines. A light lunch will be provided.

Join us for Stations of the Cross during Lent

You are invited to walk the Stations of the Cross every Friday at 5 p.m. during Lent. The Stations will be set up in the cathedral. Make this part of your discipline this Lent!

Sign up to be a Coffee Hour Angel

If you would like to provide Coffee Hour treats after Sunday services, please sign up on the easel in Taliaferro Hall. This is a great activity for groups to do too!

Shop our bookstore after church!

Come visit our bookstore next to the reception area before and after Sunday services. You can also shop during the week. Open from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on weekdays. Parishioner Mitzi Santos-Bodin is offering to create hand-made oil portraits of cathedral members, and 30 % of the proceeds will benefit the St. John's Cathedral Endowment Fund. Purchases of portraits can be made through the bookstore, so if you are interested in having your portrait made, stop by the bookstore for more information!

Lenten Quiet Day, Saturday, February 27

Join us at St. Mary's in Green Cove Springs at 9 a.m. for a morning of prayers and thoughtful silence. Come to the waters on the banks of the St. John's River to reflect and walk the labyrinth. With us will be Sandie Wesley, contemplative prayer and retreat leader and a Veriditas-trained labyrinth facilitator.

Shakespeare Reading Group News

Our Shakespeare Reading Group has just completed a close reading of Twelfth Night and we are now starting a five week study of Henry the Fifth. So come join us on Thursdays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in Ingram Lounge as we read one of Shakespeare's most popular historical plays. You are also welcome to just to come and listen! For more information about the Shakespeare Reading Group at the cathedral, contact Peter McCranie at petermccranie1@gmail.com.

Spring for the Arts, Friday, April 15

The Cathedral Arts Project presents the 12th Annual Spring for the Arts Gala, sponsored by EverBank, on April 15, 2016 at Deerwood Country Club! This year, event Chair Beth Jennison, will present the Guardians of the Arts Award to Poppy and Rob Clements for their support of the arts in our community. There is also an opportunity to win a new Cadillac ATS! Information on attendance tickets, drawing tickets, and sponsorships is available at capkids.org. Please support arts education for local youth by being a part of Spring for the Arts!
