Sing Hosanna in the Highest

Eugene Butler

Sing hosanna in the highest, blessed be the King who comes,
King of Israel, King of heaven, Lord of all His earthly sons!

Sing hosanna, peace in heaven, glory be to God on high, spread your branches and your garments, raise your anthems to the sky!

Sing hosanna to the Savior, as He comes in mighty love,
Praise the king who reigns forever with our holy God above.

Sing hosanna in the highest, glory be to God on high!

St. John's Senior Choristers

Welcome

The People stand.

Celebrant Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Celebrant Let us now hear the words of the Gospel of Luke.

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

After telling a parable to the crowd at Jericho, Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it." Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!" Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out." Luke 19:28-40

Celebrant Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Hosanna in the highest.

In Procession, Celebration Hymnal 300

“All glory, laud, and honor to thee, Redeemer, King!”

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant continues

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The People are seated.

+ THE PASSION GOSPEL +
Luke 23:1-47

The customary responses before and after the Gospel are omitted. The Congregation reads the parts in italics. The Congregation is seated until the verse that mentions Jesus' arrival at Golgotha.

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

NARRATOR: The assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate. They began to accuse Jesus, saying,
CONGREGATION: "We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king."

NARRATOR: Then Pilate asked Jesus,

PILATE: "Are you the king of the Jews?"

NARRATOR: Jesus answered,

JESUS: "You say so."

NARRATOR: Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds,

PILATE: "I find no basis for an accusation against this man."

NARRATOR: But they were insistent and said,

CONGREGATION: "He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place."

NARRATOR: When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. And when he learned that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, Pilate sent Jesus off to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time. When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had been wanting to see him for a long time, because he had heard about Jesus and was hoping to see him perform some sign. Herod questioned him at some length, but Jesus gave him no answer. The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. Even Herod with his soldiers treated Jesus with contempt and mocked him; then Herod put an elegant robe on Jesus, and sent him back to Pilate. That same day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other; before this they had been enemies. Pilate then called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, and said to them,

PILATE: "You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and here I have examined him in your presence and have not found this man guilty of any of your charges against him. Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Indeed, he has done nothing to deserve death. I will therefore have him flogged and release him."

NARRATOR: Then they all shouted together,

CONGREGATION: "Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!"

NARRATOR: (Barabbas was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder.) Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again; but they kept shouting,

CONGREGATION: "Crucify, crucify him!"

NARRATOR: A third time Pilate said to them,

PILATE: "Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no ground for the sentence of death; I will therefore have him flogged and then release him."

NARRATOR: But they kept urgently demanding with loud shouts that Jesus should be crucified; and their voices prevailed. So Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted. Pilate released the man they asked for, the one who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder, and he handed Jesus over as they wished. As they led Jesus away, they seized a man, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him, and made him carry it behind Jesus. A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women who were beating their breasts and wailing for him. But Jesus turned to them and said,

JESUS: "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For the days are surely coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us'; and to the hills, 'Cover us.' For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

NARRATOR: Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with Jesus.

+ All Stand +

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said,

JESUS: "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing."

NARRATOR: And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying,

CONGREGATION: "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!"

NARRATOR: The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying,

CONGREGATION: "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"

NARRATOR: There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews." One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying,

CRIMINAL 1: "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!"

NARRATOR: But the other rebuked him, saying,

CRIMINAL 2: “Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.”

NARRATOR: Then he said,

CRIMINAL 2: “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

NARRATOR: Jesus replied,

JESUS: “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

NARRATOR: It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, while the sun’s light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said,

JESUS: “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.”

NARRATOR: Having said this, he breathed his last.

+ Silence +

When the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God and said,

CONGREGATION: “Certainly this man was innocent.”

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

Celebrant and people sing
The Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glor - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues.

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

The Celebrant and People say the Fraction Anthem.

Celebrant Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
People have mercy on us.
Celebrant Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
People have mercy on us.
Celebrant Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
People grant us peace.

The Prayer of Humble Access

The Celebrant and People say

We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

The Celebrant continues

The gifts of God for the People of God. (Take them in remembrance that Christ died and is raised for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.)

The Lord's Table is open to all. Baptized persons are welcome to receive communion. Unbaptized persons are invited to the altar to receive a blessing. To signify that you do not desire communion, please cross your arms over your chest, and a priest will administer a blessing. You are also invited to receive prayers and anointing with holy oil in one of our transept chapels (Ascension to the south, and Holy Communion to the north) where anointers wait to pray with you.

Sending Out of Eucharistic Visitors

Following communion, Eucharistic Visitors to our homebound members may be sent forth with the following prayer.

Celebrant In the name of St. John's Cathedral, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's Body and Blood.
People We who are many are one body because we all share one bread, one cup.

Postcommunion Prayer

The Celebrant says

Let us pray.

The People kneel.

The Celebrant and People say

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

CATHEDRAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Walk with Jesus this Holy Week

Dear friends,

One of the best ways to know Jesus is to walk with him in his footsteps. That is why, every year, Christians all over the world retell the story of Jesus' final journey to Jerusalem. We walk with him in his final steps so that we might learn from him, discover new aspects of his story, and become more like him.

*The Very Reverend Kate Moorehead,
Dean*

Today is Palm Sunday, the day that we remember how Jesus entered the Holy City of Jerusalem on a donkey and how the people waved palm branches and hailed him as their king. From that moment on, things went rapidly downhill. Judas betrayed Jesus, the authorities arrested him, the crowds turned on him, and he was sentenced to die.

Holy Week contains the most beautiful, inspiring and challenging days of the church year. It is “hard core,” as they say, and it is incredibly moving. Come with us this Holy Week and walk in the steps of Jesus.

In Christ's love,

Kate+

USHER TRAINING TODAY

Are you interested in being an usher at the cathedral? We would love to have you serve with us in this ministry of hospitality! Join us for an important usher training TODAY in Cummings Chapel after the 11 a.m. service. This training is also for existing ushers, as updates have been made to usher protocol. We hope to see you there!

CATHEDRAL ANNOUNCEMENTS AND EVENTS

HOLY WEEK begins today. Please refer to page 11 of this bulletin for all Holy Week and Easter activities.

LENTEN HEALING SERVICE: HE BEARS OUR SORROWS Tuesday, March 22 at 7 p.m. in Cummings Chapel. Are you experiencing a loss - loss of a loved one, loss of a relationship, loss of health? Are you having feelings of guilt for something past or present in your life? Are you burdened by changes in your life or the upheaval in our world? Have you been disappointed? Are you just a little weary? Our simple, loving Lenten Healing Service might just be an answer to your prayers. There will be comforting prayers, readings from Scripture and beautiful music.

SEDER DINNER Wednesday, March 23 at 7 p.m. We commemorate the Passover meal that Jesus shared with his disciples the night before he died. Cost is $14 for adults and $7 for children up to age 12. Reservations are required and the deadline is today. Look for a friendly face with a clipboard after all services to sign up!

LABYRINTH Our beautiful labyrinth will be in Taliaferro Hall for self-guided walking from Thursday, March 24 at noon through Good Friday at 6 p.m.

MAUNDY THURSDAY Our Maundy Thursday service with footwashing, Eucharist and the stripping of the altar is this Thursday, March 24 at 7 p.m. The youth will meet from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. to assist with the footwashing during the service. All youth are invited to help with this special service.

SO, COULD YOU NOT STAY AWAKE WITH ME FOR ONE HOUR? St. John's will hold a Prayer Vigil in Cummings Chapel immediately following the Maundy Thursday service. The vigil will continue until Friday at 8 a.m. (Please enter via the Duval Street Door to the Chapel.) We also encourage you to stay awake in your home. If you are interested in participating, please sign up on the sign up sheet in Taliaferro Hall during coffee hour for a time slot.

GOOD FRIDAY LITURGY: THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS - Friday, March 25, from noon to 3 p.m. Join us as we remember Jesus on his way to the cross. This is a contemplative journey interspersed with prayers, personal reflections and music. You are welcome to come and go as you are able, and the nursery will be open. Please note that our offices close at noon on Good Friday.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS - There is one more opportunity to walk the Stations of the Cross during Holy Week: Good Friday, March 25 at 5 p.m. Join us in the Cathedral as we follow the way of the cross in preparation for the glorious resurrection.

GOOD FRIDAY ORGAN RECITAL - Our Canon for Music Tim Tuller performs Marcel Dupré's "Stations of the Cross" this Friday, March 25 at 7 p.m.

HOLY SATURDAY - The Sanctuary Guild invites everyone to help decorate for Easter! Join us Saturday, March 26 at 9 a.m. for decorating the cathedral.

EASTER DAY - Easter services are at 6 a.m., 9 a.m., and 11:15 a.m., with an Easter breakfast starting at 7:30 a.m. in Taliaferro Hall. The Flowering of the Cross is at the 9 a.m. service. Bring fresh cut flowers to adorn the cross. It's not just for the kids either: all are encouraged to bring flowers and participate in this longstanding St. John's tradition. Children are invited to bring their baskets for the Easter egg hunt in the Cathedral Park immediately following the 9 a.m. service. At the 11:15 a.m. service, Bishop Howard will be with us, and there will be incense.

SPECIAL EASTER DONATIONS If you would like to make a donation towards the Easter music fund please include "Easter Music" in the memo line of your check and drop it in the collection plate. Also, donations are gratefully appreciated for Easter flowers. Memorials and thanksgivings will be printed in the Easter bulletin if received by today. Special flower envelopes can be found in the pews.

BOOKSTORE SPECIAL Come visit our bookstore next to the reception area before and after Sunday services. You can also shop during the week. Open from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on weekdays. We have a new shipment of Wee Believers plush toys in the bookstore this week.

"Lily the Lamb" sings "Jesus Christ is Risen Today." These make great gifts for Easter baskets! Supplies are limited, so visit the bookstore today, or call the office to reserve yours.
