The First Reading

Acts 2:1-11

Lector A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power."

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence for reflection follows the reading.

O LORD, how manifold are thy works:
 in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches.

So is the great and wide sea also:
 wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

There go the ships, and there is that leviathan:
 whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.

These wait all upon thee:
 that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

When thou givest it them, they gather it:
 and when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.

When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled:
 when thou takest away their breath, they die, and are turned again to their dust.

When thou lettest thy breath go forth, they shall be made:
 and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

The glorious majesty of the LORD shall endure for ever:
 the LORD shall rejoice in his works.

The earth shall tremble at the look of him:
 if he do but touch the hills, they shall smoke.

I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live:
 I will praise my God while I have my being.

And so shall my words please him:
 my joy shall be in the LORD.

As for sinners they shall be consumed out of the earth
 and the ungodly shall come to an end:

Praise thou the LORD, O my soul
 Praise the LORD.

The Gospel

John 14:8-17, 25-27

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it." "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Cantor: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
Cantor: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
 Therefore let us keep the feast.
All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

The Offertory

Come Down, O Love Divine

Peter Mathews

Come down, O love divine, seek thou this soul of mine, and visit it with thine own ardor glowing; O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear, and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing. O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight, and clothe me round, the while my path illuming. Let holy charity mine outward vesture be, and lowliness become mine inner clothing; true lowliness of heart, which takes the humbler part, and o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing. And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long, shall far outpass the power of human telling; for none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling. Amen.

-Bianco da Siena, d. 1434

*Paul Fisher, baritone
Peter Mathews, conductor*

Representatives of the congregation bring forward the people's offerings of money and other gifts. The People stand when the offerings are presented and placed on the Altar. The loose offering (cash and any checks so marked) from today's offering will be given to the Bishop's Discretionary Fund. The People stand when the offerings are brought forward and placed on the Altar.

Hymn 51, St. 1-2

“We the Lord’s people”

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

The musical notation consists of four staves. The first staff is for the Celebrant, with the lyrics "The Lord be with you. And al-so with you." The second staff is for the People, with the lyrics "Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord." The third staff is for the Celebrant, with the lyrics "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God." The fourth staff is for the People, with the lyrics "It is right to give him thanks and praise."

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Hymnal S-125

Richard Proulx

The musical notation consists of five staves. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est."

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St. John the Evangelist and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and people

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Hymnal S-152

Mason Martens

The Celebrant continues

The Gifts of God for the People of God. (Take them in remembrance that Christ died and was raised for you; feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.)

The Lord's Table is open to all. Baptized persons are welcome to receive communion. Unbaptized persons are invited to the altar to receive a blessing. To signify that you do not desire communion, please cross your arms over your chest, and a priest will administer a blessing. You are also invited to receive prayers and anointing with holy oil in one of our transept chapels (Ascension to the south, and Holy Communion to the north) where anointers wait to pray with you.

Pentecost Sunday: Happy Birthday to the Church!

Pentecost is a wonderful celebration in the church year. It is the day we celebrate the Holy Spirit coming to the disciples in force and fire, empowering them to be bold voices for the Good News of Jesus Christ! The gospels tell us that the disciples were often bewildered and confused during their three years with Jesus and his ministry, ultimately abandoning and betraying him. With the coming of the Holy Spirit, they are transformed into powerful apostles, each one of them bravely proclaiming the truth of God in Jesus Christ. On Pentecost, we celebrate the transformative power of the Holy Spirit in their lives, and ask that our lives be transformed as well. We too, seek to be bold witnesses of the grace and love that is known in Jesus.

Here at the cathedral on Pentecost Sunday, we also celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation, the process through which, with the laying on of hands from a bishop, a person becomes an established member of the Episcopal Church. We are blessed to have Bishop Henderson with us today, preaching, celebrating, and confirming at both the 9 and 11 a.m. services. We also have a baptism at the 8 a.m. service, so the Holy Spirit will certainly be in full force at whichever service you decide to attend!

Pentecost also marks the transition to our summer schedule at the cathedral. Here is some information regarding changes and offerings for the next few months:

- * Sunday service times - From Sunday, May 22 - Sunday, August 28, Sunday services will be at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., both held in the cathedral.
- * Sunday morning offerings/activities - Beginning next Sunday, May 22, breakfast will be served at 9 a.m. in Taliaferro Hall during the summer months. At 9:30 a.m., from Sunday, May 22 - Sunday, June 5, Fr. John Rogers will teach Theology 101 in Ingram Lounge. For children, we will offer special activities on our Fun Day Sundays on June 5, July 10 and August 7 only. The nursery will be available on Sunday mornings. Additional class offerings/activities on Sunday mornings during the summer will be announced.
- * Wednesday evening offerings - This Wednesday, May 18, is our last Wonderful Wednesday with dinner and programs. During the summer months, there are no dinners and no children's or youth activities, and the nursery is closed on Wednesday evenings. Beginning Wednesday, June 1 - Wednesday, July 20, I will be leading an introductory class on Rob Bell in Ingram Lounge at 6 p.m. At age 28, Rob Bell founded Mars Hill Bible Church in Michigan, and under his leadership it was one of the fastest-growing churches in America. In 2011 he was profiled in Time Magazine as one of their 100 most influential people. We'll read Rob Bell's first book, Velvet Elvis: Repainting the Christian Faith, as well as watch his NOOMA video series. Fr. Carl Saxton will also lead Basic A from June 1 - July 20 for anyone interested in learning more about the church and its history in Dean Kate's office at 6 p.m.

I hope that you will take time this summer to rest and refresh with us.

In Christ's love, David + (The Reverend Canon David Erickson)
