THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Hymn 179

Fortunatus

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ is risen!

People The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn 207

Easter Hymn

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Silence.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Lesson

Acts 10:34-43

Reader A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 118: 1-2, 14-24
Chant: George Thalben-Ball

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious *because his mercy endureth for ever.
Let Israel now confess, that he is gracious *and that his mercy endureth for ever.
The Lord is my strength, and my song *and is become my salvation.

The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous *the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence *the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

I shall not die, but live *and declare the works of the Lord.

The Lord hath chastened and corrected me *but he hath not given me over unto death.

Open me the gates of righteousness *that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.

This is the gate of the Lord *the righteous shall enter into it.

I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me *and art become my salvation.

The same stone which the builders refused *is become the head-stone in the corner.

This is the Lord's doing *and it is marvelous in our eyes.

This is the day which the Lord hath made *we will rejoice and be glad in it.

A period of silence follows the reading for reflection.

The Epistle

Colossians 3:1-4

Reader A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians.

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

A period of silence for reflection follows the reading.

All stand.

Please join the choir in singing the Repeating Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

John 20:1-18

Deacon      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Repeating Alleluia is sung again after the reading of the Gospel.

Please be seated.

The Sermon

The Very Reverend Kate Moorehead Carroll

All stand.

The Nicene Creed

All

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leader      Eternal Lord, Creator of the Universe and Giver of all life, we thank you for the gift of our lives, for our loved ones and for this beautiful earth that you have entrusted into our care. Risen Christ,

People      Be known to us.

Leader We ask you to give us the gift of that peace that passes all understanding. We ask for peace throughout the world, peace among races, peace among nations, peace on the streets of this city and peace in this church. Risen Christ,

People Be known to us.

Leader We ask that you would bless and heal all those who suffer from physical illness, mental illness, addiction or any other ailment. Risen Christ,

People Be known to us.

Leader We ask you to welcome the souls of our loved ones to heaven itself, where they may see the beauty of the resurrection life. Risen Christ,

People Be known to us.

Leader Call us into your service, O Lord, that in the knowledge of your resurrection, we may use all our gifts to build your kingdom here on earth. Risen Christ,

People Be known to us.

Celebrant For yours is the majesty, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, now and for ever. Amen.

All stand.

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

The Offertory Anthem

Sing ye to the Lord
Edward C. Bairstow

Sing ye to the Lord,
for He hath triumphed gloriously.
Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath He cast into the sea.

Mighty Victim from the sky,
hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light.

Now no more can death appall,
now no more the grave enthrall;
Thou hast opened Paradise,
and in Thee Thy Saints shall rise.
Alleluia! Amen.

Hymn 380 (St.3)

Old 100th

The Great Thanksgiving

Prayer Book of the Church of England

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Father, you made the world and love your creation. You gave your Son Jesus Christ to be our Saviour. His dying and rising have set us free from sin and death. And so we gladly thank you, with saints and angels praising you, and singing:

All sing

Hymn S-125

Richard Proulx

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The People stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

We praise and bless you, loving Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you. He broke the bread, gave it to them and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine. Again he praised you, gave it to them and said: "Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did, in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross. Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory. Great is the mystery of faith:

The Celebrant and People sing

Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth. Look with favor on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with all the saints to feast at your table in heaven. Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory are yours, O loving Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread.

The Celebrant and People sing the Fraction Anthem.

Hymnal S-152

Mason Martens

Celebrant The gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All baptized people are welcome to receive communion. Everyone is welcome to come to the altar for a blessing. Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten free wafer. If you would like a blessing, please fold your arms across your chest. You are also invited to receive prayers in our chapel to the left of the altar

Music at Communion

Gospel Offering (11 :15 a.m.)

Resurrecting, Elevation Worship
Maurice Dickerson, soloist
Alex Jackson, accompanist

Motet

Magdalen, cease from sobs and sighs
German Melody
Arr. Peter Hurford

Magdalen, cease from sobs and sighs;
Wipe the teardrops from off thine eyes:
Simon the leper's feast is o'er;
Christ today needs thy nard no more.
Now thousand times may'st thou rejoice;
Now thousand times uplift thy voice.
Alleluia.

Magdalen, bind upon thee now
Garland of gladness o'er thy brow:
Banish'd afar is grief and pain:
Welcome is sunshine after rain.
For Jesu Christ the world hath freed,
Triumphing over Death indeed.
Alleluia.

Motet

Christ Our Passover
Everett Titcomb

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore, let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia.

THE SEASON OF EASTER

More than just a Sunday, Easter is a season of fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday in which we joyfully celebrate the resurrection and the renewal of creation. We invite you to join us in exploring the theme “Our Relationship with Nature” throughout this season. All creation is clearly bearing the weight of an immense human population and its excesses. How is God calling us to care for creation?

U P C O M I N G

Unveiling of our Family Tree

Come back next Sunday for an unveiling of our Baptism Family Tree a new artwork for the narthex that celebrates our growing family. Please join us for a special reception in the breezeway to thank Brighton Hakimian, artist, and George Booth, carpenter, for this creation.

Sunday, April 16

New Series

Conversations With Kate about Creation.

Join Dean Kate on the eight Sundays of the Easter season for a conversation about Creation. “I am working on a new book. It has become a valuable practice of mine to discuss my books with you, my Cathedral family, as they unfold. This book is a look at our spiritual DNA, the double helix of the two creation stories that open the Holy Scriptures. Dive with me into the Hebrew texts and let us rediscover who we are and how God calls us to live with one another in harmony with this gorgeous planet.” Kate Moorehead Carroll, Dean.

Sundays, April 16 - May 12

9 a.m. | Taliaferro Hall

Newcomer’s Luncheon

All newcomers are encouraged to join us for this time set aside to learn more about all that we have going on in and around St. John’s Cathedral.

Sunday, April 23

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. | Ingram Lounge

LOVE AT THE CORE

Love at the Core is our motto; it refers to the heart of our ministry and mission. For nearly 200 years, St. John's Cathedral has been in the forefront of spiritual leadership and community service in Jacksonville's Urban Core. Many ministries to care for children and the elderly and to promote the arts, education and healthcare started here, including Aging True, The Episcopal School of Jacksonville, Cathedral Care, Cathedral Arts Project, The Cathedral School and Cathedral District-Jax. These ministries are now thriving nonprofit organizations serving the downtown and beyond. Today we continue to move forward with Love at the Core. We invite you to join us.
