Eastertide Bible Study: "Lessons for Life"

April 15, 22, 29, May 6, 13
7:30am & 11am, Taliaferro Hall

How important was David to the people of Ancient Israel? When Jesus of Nazareth appeared and was hailed as the Messiah he was referred to as "the Son of David." The memory and legacy of David was just that important. Learning about David can be important for us. We can find lessons for our own life when we learn about the life of David. His triumphs, uncertainties and sins offer a radically honest vision of the human condition. And thank God, that vision reveals God at the center of it all. The Rev. Mark Anderson and the Rev. Tom O'Dell offer lessons from the life of David on five Wednesdays this Eastertide. Choose the time on Wednesdays that works for you and join us for "Lessons for Life!"

Living Faith at the Cathedral: Newcomer's Class

April 19, April 26, May 3
9am, Cathedral House Reception area

If you are new to the Cathedral or are simply looking to renew your faith, join the Rev. Tom O'Dell for this informative series. Tom will be answering your questions about life at the Cathedral and in the Episcopal Church. Questions: todell@jaxcathedral.org.

Confirmations, Receptions, and Reaffirmations
Sunday, May 24

If you are interested in joining the Cathedral by confirmation, reception, or reaffirmation during the Bishop's visit, or in learning more about these rites, please be in touch with Linda O'Dell: lodell@jaxcathedral.org.

WELCOME

Whether you're visiting for the first time or you've been worshipping here for years, our welcome ministry, Engage@JaxCathedral, is here to help you make a home for your faith at St. John's Cathedral.

Fill out the Welcome card in the pew back and place it in the offering plate, or complete the form online at jaxcathedral.org/welcome (or scan the QR code) so we can get to know you.

Throughout this service, items in bold are spoken by the congregation in unison.

At the sound of the bell, all stand. The bell tolls nine times, three times three is a symbol of the Trinity.

1982 Hymnal

This acclamation weaves together "Alleluia" (ancient Hebrew praise) with the resurrection proclamation of Luke 24, so that the congregation's first words are a communal act of witness.

This prayer changes each Sunday and summarizes a theme from today's Scripture readings.

All sit.

Sung by the Cathedral Choir

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

In Procession, Hymn #179

"Welcome, happy morning!" Fortunatus

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn #207

"Jesus Christ is risen today" Easter Hymn

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Colossians 3:1-4

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

The Words of Holy Scripture.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24

Chant: George Thalben-Ball

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious, because his mercy endureth forever.

Let Israel now confess, that he is gracious and that his mercy endureth forever.

The Lord is my strength, and my song and is become my salvation.

The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous, the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence, the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

The Lord hath chastened and corrected me, but he hath not given me over unto death.
 Open me the gates of righteousness, that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.
 This is the gate of the Lord, the righteous shall enter into it.
 I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.
 The same stone which the builders refused, is become the headstone in the corner.
 This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.
 This is the day which the Lord hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it.

A Repeating Alleluia

Calvin Hampton

All stand. The chant is sung 5 times.

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 28:1-10

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Christ.

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you." So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people

The Sermon

The Very Rev. Kate Moorehead Carroll

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, Repeat chant 3 times.

All sit.

A period of silence is kept following the sermon.

All stand.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying "We believe in you, God."

not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Risen Christ, open our eyes to your presence in the ordinary moments of our days: in the beauty of the created world, in the faces of those we love, and in the breaking of bread. May we never be so hurried or so blind that we miss you. Risen Christ,
Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

We pray for all who are heavy-laden: for the sick in body, mind, or spirit; for those crushed by poverty or displaced by war; for immigrants far from home, and all who sleep without shelter tonight. May they be held in your all-embracing love. Risen Christ,
Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

We pray for peace throughout the world: not merely for the end of violence, but for justice and mercy that lead to true peace. Where there is conflict and hatred, pour out your reconciling Spirit. Risen Christ,
Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

Teach us to see your image in one another: across difference and division, in moments of frustration and misunderstanding. Give us the grace to listen before we speak, to forgive as we have been forgiven, and to hold fast to hope when discord threatens to overwhelm. Risen Christ,
Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

Stir in us a reverent love for this good earth you have entrusted to our care. Grant us wisdom and commitment to protect the waters, the land, and the creatures with whom we share this world. Risen Christ,
Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

We commend to your loving mercy all who have died. Receive them into the light of your glory, and sustain us until we are united with them in the life that knows no end. Risen Christ,
Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem

Worthy is the Lamb (from Messiah), G. F. Handel

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by his blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Blessing and honour, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. Amen. -Revelation 5:12-14

The Great Thanksgiving

Enriching Our Worship I

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was in every way tempted as we are, yet did not sin; by whose grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer unto ourselves, but unto him who died for us and rose again. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Children are invited to take part in the tradition of the Flowering of the Cross with fresh flowers to help transform the cross into a beautiful symbol of new life and hope.

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

All stand. Sing 3 times.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

All kneel or stand as able.

These words come from Scripture:

Matthew 26:26-29

Mark 14:22-25

Luke 22:14-20

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest. Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, my heart, my heart a - dores you! My heart pours out my praise to - you; you are ho - ly, Lord.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen. And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Music at Communion

Haec Dies, Charles Wood

*Haec dies quam fecit Dominus:
exultemus et laetemur in ea.*

This is the day which the Lord hath made:
let us be glad and rejoice therein.

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain, R. S. Thatcher

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain of triumphant gladness; God hath brought his Israel into joy from sadness; 'Tis the spring of souls today, Christ hath burst his prison, and from three days sleep in death as a sun hath risen. Now the queen of seasons bright with the day of splendor, with the royal feast of feasts, comes its joys to render; Comes to glad Jerusalem, who with true affection welcomes in unwearied strains Jesu's resurrection. Neither might the gates of death, nor the tomb's dark portal, nor the watchers, nor the seal, hold thee as a mortal; But today amidst the twelve Thou didst stand, bestowing that thy peace which evermore passeth human knowing.

Hymn #208

"The strife is o'er the battle won" Victory

Hymn #180

"He is risen, he is risen!" Unser Herrscher

Hymn #193

"That Easter day with joy was bright" Puer Nobis

Hymn #174

"At the Lamb's high feast we sing" Salzburg

1982 Hymnal

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

The Blessing

Almighty God has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord. May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

In Recession, Hymn #199

"Come ye faithful raise the strain" St. Kevin

All stand. 1982 Hymnal.

The Dismissal

Let us go forth in the name of Christ, Alleluia, Alleluia!
Thanks be to God, Alleluia, Alleluia!

We follow the cross into the world to be the hands and feet of Christ.

Concluding Voluntary

Prelude to "Te Deum," Marc-Antonie Charpentier
