Throughout this service, items in bold are spoken by the congregation in unison.

At the sound of the bell, all stand. The bell tolls nine times, three times three is a symbol of the Trinity.

*1982 Hymnal
We follow a cross to worship as Jesus said, "Take up your cross and follow me."*

This acclamation weaves together "Alleluia" (ancient Hebrew praise) with the resurrection proclamation of Luke 24, so that the congregation's first words are a communal act of witness.

This prayer changes each Sunday and summarizes a theme from today's Scripture readings.

All sit.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Opening Voluntary

Pastorale, Herbert Sumsion

Introit (10:30 a.m.)

Hide me under the shadow of thy wings, John E. West

Hide me under the shadow of Thy wings, O Lord, and give Thine angels charge concerning me: that I may lie down in peace, and take my rest, for it is Thou, Lord, only, that makest me to dwell in safety.

In Procession, Hymn #645 (8 a.m. St. 1-3) "The King of love my shepherd is" St. Columba

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Acts 2:42-47

Those who had been baptized devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

The Words of Holy Scripture.

Thanks be to God.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not be in want.
 He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters.
 He revives my soul and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.
 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over.
 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Holy Gospel: John 10:1-10

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus said, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly."

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Canon Mark S. Anderson

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words. In worship, the psalm is often spoken together as a way of shaping our community's hearts.

All stand. The chant is sung 5 times.

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel.

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people.

Repeat chant 3 times.

All sit.

A period of silence is kept following the sermon.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying “We believe in you, God.”

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Risen Christ, open our eyes to your presence in the ordinary moments of our days: in the beauty of the created world, in the faces of those we love, and in the breaking of bread. May we never be so hurried or so blind that we miss you.

Risen Christ,

Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

We pray for all who are heavy-laden: for the sick in body, mind, or spirit; for those crushed by poverty or displaced by war; for immigrants far from home, and all who sleep without shelter tonight. May they be held in your all-embracing love.

Risen Christ,

Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

We pray for peace throughout the world: not merely for the end of violence, but for justice and mercy that lead to true peace. Where there is conflict and hatred, pour out your reconciling Spirit.

Risen Christ,

Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

Teach us to see your image in one another: across difference and division, in moments of frustration and misunderstanding. Give us the grace to listen before we speak, to forgive as we have been forgiven, and to hold fast to hope when discord threatens to overwhelm.

Risen Christ,

Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

Stir in us a reverent love for this good earth you have entrusted to our care. Grant us wisdom and commitment to protect the waters, the land, and the creatures with whom we share this world.

Risen Christ,

Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

We commend to your loving mercy all who have died. Receive them into the light of your glory, and sustain us until we are united with them in the life that knows no end.

Risen Christ,

Bring us to the fullness of your grace.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem (10:30 a.m.) The King of love my Shepherd is, Edward C. Bairstow

The King of love my Shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His and He is mine for ever.
Where streams of living water flow my ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.
Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid, and home, rejoicing, brought me.
In death's dark vale I fear no ill with Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still, thy Cross before to guide me.
Thou spread'st a table in my sight, thy unction grace bestoweth,
And O the transport of delight with which my cup o'erfloweth!
And so, through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise within Thy house forever!

LEVAS #13

Harmony

My Lord, what a morn-ing, My Lord, what a morn-ing, O my Lord, what a morn-ing, When the stars be-gin to fall.

Fine

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

All stand. Sing 3 times.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy; but chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, my heart, my heart a - dores you! My heart pours out my praise to - you; you are ho - ly, Lord.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

All kneel or stand as able.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.

Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

These words come from

Scripture:

Matthew 26:26-29

Mark 14:22-25

Luke 22:14-20

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem, Hymn #S-152 (spoken at 8 a.m., sung at 10:30 a.m.)

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest.

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and all join in singing the Fraction Anthem.

Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer. If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

If you are in need of confidential prayers, please come to the chapel to the right of the altar (the South Transcept).

At 10:30 a.m., a socially-distant communion table is set in the chapel to the left of the altar (the North Transcept).

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

The Blessing

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the Blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be with you now and remain with you forever.

Amen.

In Recession, Hymn #191 (8 a.m. St. 1-3) "Alleluia, alleluia! Hearts and voices heavenward raise"

Lux eoi

The Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!

Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!
