TODAY

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

9-10am - Dean's Forum: Stories of our Faith

Taliaferro Hall

Fellow Cathedral members will tell their favorite Bible story in unique ways. Today's storyteller is Ken Meyers. Ken joined the Cathedral last May and has served in ordained ministry for 38 years. "Stories of our Faith" continues through August with storytellers Mary Margaret Giannini (Aug. 9), Lewis Hunt (Aug. 16) and Sandi Dunnavant (Aug. 23).

11:45am - Loss of Spouse Grief Group,

Room 302 (Center for Wellbeing)

If you have experienced the death of a spouse, we invite you to join us. Everyone's journey is different, but we have learned that a gentle healing can come from sharing and listening to those who also have suffered this loss. For more information, contact Linda O'Dell at lodell@jaxcathedral.org.

12pm - Art Walk and Talk, Taliaferro Hall

Experience Spreading the Word: Pay Attention in a whole new way with artist Teresa Cook and the Rev. Dr. Linda Privitera. During this one-hour conversation, Teresa and Linda will offer an inside look at the inspiration and creative process behind the exhibition. Lunch will be available in Taliaferro Hall. Donations are appreciated. Come explore, ask questions, and be inspired to pay attention.

12pm - Smart Money Foundations,

Room 302 (Center for Wellbeing)

A practical 4-part financial education series designed to help adults build confidence, reduce financial stress, and create sustainable money habits. This series provides approachable, actionable strategies that help individuals make informed financial decisions and build long-term financial stability. The workshops are free! Registration is appreciated so that we may prepare for the event. Use the QR code here to learn more and register.

All sit.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Opening Voluntary

Prelude in Classic Style, Gordon Young

Introit (10:30 a.m.)

Call to remembrance, Richard Farrant

Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercy and thy loving kindness which hath been ever of old. O remember not the sins and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy think thou on me, O Lord, for thy goodness.

In Procession, Hymn #448 (8 a.m. St. 1-3)

"O love, how deep, how broad, how high"
Deus tuorum militum

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Blessed be God.
Forever and ever. Amen.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it.
Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad.

Our help is in the name of the Lord:
The Maker of heaven and earth.

I was glad when they said to me:
"Let us go to the house of the Lord."

The Spirit is here.
The promise of God.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Genesis 32:22-31

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

The Words of Holy Scripture.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 17:1-7, 16

Hear my plea of innocence, O Lord; give heed to my cry; listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Let my vindication come forth from your presence; let your eyes be fixed on justice.

Weigh my heart, summon me by night, melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I give no offense with my mouth as others do; I have heeded the words of your lips.

My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law; in your paths my feet shall not stumble.

I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; incline your ear to me and hear my words.

Show me your marvelous loving-kindness, O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise up against them.

But at my vindication I shall see your face; when I awake, I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God (St. 1-2)

1 Breathe on me, Breath of God, fill me with life a - new,
 2 Breathe on me, Breath of God, un - til my heart is pure,
 3 Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am whol - ly thine,
 4 Breathe on me, Breath of God, so shall I nev - er die;

that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.
 un - til with thee I will one will, to do or to en - dure.
 till all this earth - ly part of me glows with thy fire di - vine.
 but live with thee the per - fect life of thine e - ter - ni - ty.

Words: Edwin Hatch (1835-1889), alt. Music: Nova Vita, Lister R. Peace (1885-1969).

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words. In worship, the psalm is often spoken together as a way of shaping our community's hearts.

All stand.

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel.

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people.

*All sit.
A period of silence is kept following the sermon.*

*All stand.
The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying "We believe in you, God."*

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God (St. 3-4, see page 5)

The Sermon

The Rev. Canon Mark S. Anderson

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Spirit of the living God, you descended upon the disciples in tongues of fire and sent them to carry your message of grace to the ends of the earth. Descend on us also, that when we leave this place, we may carry your Word of love into all the world. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for Sean our Presiding Bishop, for our Diocese as we prepare to elect a Bishop, for the Diocese of Cuba, and for the mission of your holy Church throughout the world. Give us tongues of fire and hearts of love as we proclaim your Gospel of love. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for our nation and for all the nations of the world: for those in authority, and for those who feel forgotten by power; for those who seek justice, those who labor for peace, and those who speak even when the truth is costly. Let your Word of righteousness and mercy be heard in every land. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for the city of Jacksonville, for the homeless on our streets, for the Center for Wellbeing here at this Cathedral, and for every place where healing is offered. Help us to grow into people whose lives proclaim your love, even before we have spoken a word. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit: for those who are sick, those who are lonely, those who grieve, those who long for someone to hear their story. May your Word of comfort be spoken with our lips and your presence be made known in our embrace. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We commend to your loving mercy all who have died. Receive them into the light of your Living Word, who spoke them into being and has now called them home. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

All kneel or stand as able. A period of silence invites us to reflect on our own lives and our need for forgiveness.

Confession is a process of letting go, forgiving others, and being forgiven by God.

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

All stand. This ancient hymn from the 4th century offers a meditation on the awe-inspiring mystery of the Incarnation and the Holy Eucharist.

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

All kneel or stand as able.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Welcome and Announcements

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem (10:30 a.m.)

Behold, the tabernacle of God, William H. Harris

Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and the Spirit of God dwelleth within you. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are. For the love of whom you do this day celebrate the joys of the temple with a season of festivity. Alleluia. -Sarum Antiphon

Hymn #324 (St. 1 & 4)

"Let all mortal flesh keep silence" Picardy

1. Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand;
ponder nothing earthly minded,
for, with blessing in His hand,
Christ our God to earth descendeth,
our full homage to demand.

4. At His feet the six-winged seraph, cherubim with sleepless eye,
veil their faces to the Presence,
as with ceaseless voice they cry,
"Alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, Lord Most High!"

The Great Thanksgiving

Enriching Our Worship I

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.

Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem, Hymn #S-152 (spoken at 8 a.m., sung at 10:30 a.m.)

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

These words come from Scripture:

Matthew 26:26-29

Mark 14:22-25

Luke 22:14-20

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest.

If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and all join in singing the Fraction Anthem.

Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

At 10:30 a.m., if you are in need of confidential prayers, please come to the chapel to the right of the altar (the South Transcept).

At 10:30 a.m., a socially-distant communion table is set in the chapel to the left of the altar (the North Transcept).

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

All stand. 1982 Hymnal.

We follow the cross into the world to be the hands and feet of Christ.

Music at Communion (10:30 a.m.)

Gospel Offering "This is My Father's World," by Maltbie Davenport Babcock
Maurice Dickerson, soloist; Jack Ringca, accompanist

Motet The Holy Eucharist, William H. Harris

Him holy, in him abide. Eternal soul in him you hide. All your sin on God laid bare, receiving life he longs to share. Him holy, in him abide, O Christian souls his body live. How in him to Father make the sacrifice of Incarnate. Him holy, in him abide, heaven home in him alive. Holy love one body make, joying souls new blessing wake.

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.
Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

In Recession, Hymn #690 "Guide me, O thou great Jehovah" Cwm Rhondda

The Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!
