TODAY

Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

9-10am - Dean's Forum: Stories of our Faith

Taliaferro Hall

Fellow Cathedral members will tell their favorite Bible story in unique ways. Today's storyteller is Mary Margaret Giannini, the Assistant General Counsel at the Office of General Counsel in Jacksonville. She is also a wonderful 8am usher! "Stories of our Faith" continues through August with storytellers Lewis Hunt (Aug. 16) and Sandi Dunnivant (Aug. 23).

10:30am - Blessing of the Backpacks,

Cathedral Nave, during the 10:30am service

Start the school year with a blessing! At the 10:30 a.m. service, students and teachers are invited to bring backpacks, briefcases, and school supplies to receive a special blessing. Student drivers—don't forget your car keys!

Bishop Nominees Meet & Greet
Monday, August 17, 5:30-9pm

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Opening Voluntary

Prelude in C major, J. S. Bach

Introit (10:30 a.m.)

Give almes of thy goods, Christopher Tye

Give almes of thy goods, and turn never thy face from any poor man: and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

In Procession, Hymn #414 (8 a.m. St. 1-3)

"God, my King thy might confessing" Stuttgart

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Blessed be God.

Forever and ever. Amen.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it.

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad.

Our help is in the name of the Lord:

The Maker of heaven and earth.

I was glad when they said to me:

"Let us go to the house of the Lord."

The Spirit is here.

The promise of God.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson: 1 Kings 19:9-18

At Horeb, the mount of God, Elijah came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

The Words of Holy Scripture.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 85:8-13

I will listen to what the Lord God is saying, for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.

Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, that his glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth shall spring up from the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

The Lord will indeed grant prosperity, and our land will yield its increase.

Righteousness shall go before him, and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

Words: Edwin Hatch (1835-1889), alt. Music: Nova Vita, Lister R. Peace (1885-1969).

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words. In worship, the psalm is often spoken together as a way of shaping our community's hearts.

All stand.

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel.

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people.

*All sit.
A period of silence is kept following the sermon.*

All stand.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying "We believe in you, God."

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Breathe on Me, Breath of God (St. 3-4, pg. 5)

The Sermon

The Very Rev. Kate Moorehead Carroll

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Spirit of the living God, you descended upon the disciples in tongues of fire and sent them to carry your message of grace to the ends of the earth. Descend on us also, that when we leave this place, we may carry your Word of love into all the world. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for Sean our Presiding Bishop, for our Diocese as we prepare to elect a Bishop, for the Diocese of Cuba, and for the mission of your holy Church throughout the world. Give us tongues of fire and hearts of love as we proclaim your Gospel of love. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for our nation and for all the nations of the world: for those in authority, and for those who feel forgotten by power; for those who seek justice, those who labor for peace, and those who speak even when the truth is costly. Let your Word of righteousness and mercy be heard in every land. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for the city of Jacksonville, for the homeless on our streets, for the Center for Wellbeing here at this Cathedral, and for every place where healing is offered. Help us to grow into people whose lives proclaim your love, even before we have spoken a word. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit: for those who are sick, those who are lonely, those who grieve, those who long for someone to hear their story. May your Word of comfort be spoken with our lips and your presence be made known in our embrace. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We commend to your loving mercy all who have died. Receive them into the light of your Living Word, who spoke them into being and has now called them home. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

All kneel or stand as able. A period of silence invites us to reflect on our own lives and our need for forgiveness.

Confession is a process of letting go, forgiving others, and being forgiven by God.

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

All stand. This ancient hymn from the 4th century offers a meditation on the awe-inspiring mystery of the Incarnation and the Holy Eucharist.

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem (10:30 a.m.)

Jesu, grant me this I pray, C. H. Kitson

Jesu, grant me this, I pray, ever in thy heart to stay; let me evermore abide hidden in thy wounded side. If the evil one prepare, or the world, a tempting snare, I am safe when I abide in thy heart and wounded side. If the flesh, more dangerous still, tempt my soul to deeds of ill, naught I fear when I abide in thy heart and wounded side. Death will come one day to me; Jesu, cast me not from thee: dying let me still abide in thy heart and wounded side.

Hymn #324 (St. 1 & 4)

1. Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand;
ponder nothing earthly minded,
for, with blessing in His hand,
Christ our God to earth descendeth,
our full homage to demand.

"Let all mortal flesh keep silence" Picardy

4. At His feet the six-winged seraph, cherubim with sleepless eye,
veil their faces to the Presence,
as with ceaseless voice they cry,
"Alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, Lord Most High!"

The Great Thanksgiving

Enriching Our Worship I

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem, Hymn #S-152 (spoken at 8 a.m., sung at 10:30 a.m.)

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All kneel or stand as able.

These words come from Scripture:

Matthew 26:26-29

Mark 14:22-25

Luke 22:14-20

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest.

If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and all join in singing the Fraction Anthem.

Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

At 10:30 a.m., if you are in need of confidential prayers, please come to the chapel to the right of the altar (the South Transcept).

At 10:30 a.m., a socially-distant communion table is set in the chapel to the left of the altar (the North Transcept).

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

All stand. 1982 Hymnal.

We follow the cross into the world to be the hands and feet of Christ.

Music at Communion (10:30 a.m.)

Organ Sonata II in C minor, J. S. Bach
III. Allegro

Hymn #318 "Here, O my Lord" Nyack

Motet Verily, verily I say unto you, Thomas Tallis

Verily, verily I say unto you: except ye eat the flesh of the son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.
Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

In Recession, Hymn #637 (8 a.m. St. 1-3) "How firm a foundation" Lyons

The Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!

Closing Voluntary Fugue in C major, J. S. Bach
