THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Opening Voluntary

A Solemn Melody, H. Walford Davies

Introit (10:30 a.m.)

Oculi omnium, Charles Wood

Oculi omnium in te sperant, Domine:
et tu das escam illorum in tempore opportuno.
Gloria tibi Domine, Amen.

The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord,
and you give them their food in due season.
Glory to you, Lord, Amen.

In Procession, Hymn #675 (8 a.m. St. 1-3)

"Take up your cross, the Savior said" Bourbon

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Blessed be God.

Forever and ever. Amen.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it.

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad.

Our help is in the name of the Lord:

The Maker of heaven and earth.

I was glad when they said to me:

"Let us go to the house of the Lord."

The Spirit is here.

The promise of God.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Exodus 3:1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."

But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain." But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I am who I am." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I am has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you':

This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.

The Words of Holy Scripture.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 105:1-6, 23-26, 45c

Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name; make known his deeds among the peoples.

Sing to him, sing praises to him, and speak of all his marvelous works.

Glory in his holy Name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

Search for the Lord and his strength; continually seek his face.

Remember the marvels he has done, his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,

O offspring of Abraham his servant, O children of Jacob his chosen.

Israel came into Egypt, and Jacob became a sojourner in the land of Ham.

The Lord made his people exceedingly fruitful; he made them stronger than their enemies;

Whose heart he turned, so that they hated his people, and dealt unjustly with his servants.

He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.

Hallelujah!

Only a Holy God (8 a.m. Refrain Only, page 6) (10:30 a.m. St. 1-2, Refrain)

1. Who else commands all the hosts of Heaven?
Who else could make every king bow down?
Who else could whisper and darkness trembles? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, page 6)
2. What other beauty demands such praises?
What other splendour outshines the Sun?
What other majesty rules with justice? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, page 6)

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words. In worship, the psalm is often spoken together as a way of shaping our community's hearts.

All stand.

At 10:30 a.m., the Cathedral Choir will sing the verses of this hymn, and we invite the congregation to join the Choir in singing each refrain.

*At 8 a.m., all sing this refrain
2x before, and 2x after the Gospel reading.*

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel.

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people.

*All sit.
A period of silence is kept following the sermon.*

All stand.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 16:21-28

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? "For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Only a Holy God (8 a.m. Refrain Only) (10:30 a.m. St. 3-4, Refrain)

3. What other glory consumes like fire?
What other power can raise the dead?
What other name remains undefeated? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, top of page)
4. Who else could rescue me from my failing?
Who else would offer His only Son?
Who else invites me to call Him Father? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, top of page)

The Sermon

The Very Rev. Kate Moorehead Carroll

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Spirit of the living God, you descended upon the disciples in tongues of fire and sent them to carry your message of grace to the ends of the earth. Descend on us also, that when we leave this place, we may carry your Word of love into all the world. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for Sean our Presiding Bishop, for our Diocese as we prepare to elect a Bishop, for the Diocese of Cuba, and for the mission of your holy Church throughout the world. Give us tongues of fire and hearts of love as we proclaim your Gospel of love. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for our nation and for all the nations of the world: for those in authority, and for those who feel forgotten by power; for those who seek justice, those who labor for peace, and those who speak even when the truth is costly. Let your Word of righteousness and mercy be heard in every land. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for the city of Jacksonville, for the homeless on our streets, for the Center for Wellbeing here at this Cathedral, and for every place where healing is offered. Help us to grow into people whose lives proclaim your love, even before we have spoken a word. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit: for those who are sick, those who are lonely, those who grieve, those who long for someone to hear their story. May your Word of comfort be spoken with our lips and your presence be made known in our embrace. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We commend to your loving mercy all who have died. Receive them into the light of your Living Word, who spoke them into being and has now called them home. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying "We believe in you, God."

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

Confession of Sin

All kneel or stand as able. A period of silence invites us to reflect on our own lives and our need for forgiveness.

Confession is a process of letting go, forgiving others, and being forgiven by God.

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

All stand and sing.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Welcome and Announcements

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem (10:30 a.m.)

Draw us in the Spirit's tether, Harold Friedell

Draw us in the Spirit's tether; for when humbly, in thy name, two or three are met together, thou art in the midst of them: alleluia, alleluia! Touch we now the garment's hem. As the brethren used to gather in the name of Christ to sup, then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup, alleluia, alleluia! So we knit thou our friendship up. All our meals and all our living, make us sacraments of thee, that by caring, helping, giving we may true disciples be, alleluia, alleluia! We will serve thee faithfully.

For the Beauty of the Earth

1. For the beau-ty of the earth, for the glo-ry of the skies,
2. For the beau-ty of each hour of the day and of the night,
3. For the joy of hu-man love, broth-er, sis-ter, par-ent, child,
4. For each per-fect gift of thine to our race so free-ly giv'n:

for the love which from our birth o-ver and a-round us lies:
hill and vale, and tree and flow'r, sun and moon, and stars of light:
friends on earth, and friends a-bove; for all gen-tle thoughts and mild:
grac-es hu-man and Di-vine, flow'rs of earth and buds of heav'n:

The Great Thanksgiving Enriching Our Worship I

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

All kneel or stand as able.

*These words come from Scripture:
Matthew 26:26-29
Mark 14:22-25
Luke 22:14-20
1 Corinthians 11:23-26*

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest.

If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and all join in singing the Fraction Anthem.

Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

At 10:30 a.m., if you are in need of confidential prayers, please come to the chapel to the right of the altar (the South Transcept).

At 10:30 a.m., a socially-distant communion table is set in the chapel to the left of the altar (the North Transcept).

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

All stand. 1982 Hymnal.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem, Hymn #S-152 (spoken at 8 a.m., sung at 10:30 a.m.)

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

In Recession, Hymn #450 (8 a.m. St. 1-3) "All hail the power of Jesus' Name!" Coronation

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!

Closing Voluntary

Gloria, Marcel Dupré

The flowers at the altar today are given in loving memory of George Alton Booth, Jr.

We follow the cross into the world to be the hands and feet of Christ.

Realm is an online church community where we can connect with each other outside our Sunday gatherings. We'd love for you to take part! Connecting on Realm gives you access to register for upcoming events, join ministry groups, and manage your giving. To request an account setup link, contact Linda O'Dell at lodell@jaxcathedral.org

Pastoral Care

If you are in need of pastoral care, visit jaxcathedral.org/pastoral-care to complete the request form, and we will respond quickly and confidentially. If you have an emergency and want to reach a priest, please call (904) 356-5507 and press 4.
