TODAY

Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

9-10am - Dean's Forum: Stories of our Faith

Taliaferro Hall

Fellow Cathedral members will tell their favorite Bible story in unique ways. Today's storyteller is Sandi Dunnivant. Sandi was a teacher for 48 years. She is our bookstore's program director, and is the founder of their Art@Noon program. She was also the first woman to be elected Green Cove Springs' city council and also served as mayor! Sandi has been member of the Cathedral for 16 years.

Next Sunday: A special Dean's Forum from the Center for Wellbeing, Paige Hakimian, PhD, PCC will give a stress-management presentation from 9-10am in Taliaferro Hall. Join us for this productive, fun, and engaging session!

This prayer changes each Sunday and summarizes a theme from today's Scripture readings.

All sit.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Opening Voluntary

Prelude in G, J. S. Bach

Introit (10:30 a.m.)

O Bless the Lord, Ippolitof-Ivanof

O bless the Lord, o my soul; and all within me bless His name. O bless the Lord, o my soul; o sing His praise, and forget not all His benefits. O bless the Lord, o my soul; for He forgiveth thine iniquities. He redeemeth thy life from destruction, He crowneth thee with loving Kindness; as the Heav'n is high above the earth, so great is He. His mercy, His gentle mercy shall comfort and save thee.

In Procession, Hymn #427

"When morning gilds the skies" Laudes Domini

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Blessed be God.

Forever and ever. Amen.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it.

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad.

Our help is in the name of the Lord:

The Maker of heaven and earth.

I was glad when they said to me:

"Let us go to the house of the Lord."

The Spirit is here.

The promise of God.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Grant, O merciful God, that your Church, being gathered together in unity by your Holy Spirit, may show forth your power among all peoples, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson: Romans 12:1-8

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God-- what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

The Words of Holy Scripture.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 124

If the Lord had not been on our side, let Israel now say;
If the Lord had not been on our side, when enemies rose up against us;
Then would they have swallowed us up alive in their fierce anger toward us;
Then would the waters have overwhelmed us and the torrent gone over us;
Then would the raging waters have gone right over us.
Blessed be the Lord! He has not given us over to be a prey for their teeth.
We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler; the snare is broken, and we have escaped.
Our help is in the Name of the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.

Only a Holy God (St. 1-2, Refrain)

1. Who else commands all the hosts of Heaven?
Who else could make every king bow down?
Who else could whisper and darkness trembles? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, below)
2. What other beauty demands such praises?
What other splendour outshines the Sun?
What other majesty rules with justice? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, below)

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words. In worship, the psalm is often spoken together as a way of shaping our community's hearts.

All stand.

The Cathedral Choir sings the verses of this hymn, and we invite the congregation to join the Choir in singing each refrain.

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel.

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people.

*All sit.
A period of silence is kept following the sermon.*

All stand.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying "We believe in you, God."

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 16:13-20

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Christ.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Only a Holy God (St. 3-4, Refrain)

3. What other glory consumes like fire?
What other power can raise the dead?
And what other name remains undefeated? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, page 5)
4. Who else could rescue me from my failing?
Who else would offer His only Son?
And who else invites me to call Him Father? Only a Holy God. (Refrain, page 5)

The Sermon

The Very Rev. Kate Moorehead Carroll

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Spirit of the living God, you descended upon the disciples in tongues of fire and sent them to carry your message of grace to the ends of the earth. Descend on us also, that when we leave this place, we may carry your Word of love into all the world. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for Sean our Presiding Bishop, for our Diocese as we prepare to elect a Bishop, for the Diocese of Cuba, and for the mission of your holy Church throughout the world. Give us tongues of fire and hearts of love as we proclaim your Gospel of love. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for our nation and for all the nations of the world: for those in authority, and for those who feel forgotten by power; for those who seek justice, those who labor for peace, and those who speak even when the truth is costly. Let your Word of righteousness and mercy be heard in every land. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for the city of Jacksonville, for the homeless on our streets, for the Center for Wellbeing here at this Cathedral, and for every place where healing is offered. Help us to grow into people whose lives proclaim your love, even before we have spoken a word. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We pray for all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit: for those who are sick, those who are lonely, those who grieve, those who long for someone to hear their story. May your Word of comfort be spoken with our lips and your presence be made known in our embrace. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

We commend to your loving mercy all who have died. Receive them into the light of your Living Word, who spoke them into being and has now called them home. Word of God,

Send us into the world.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

All kneel or stand as able. A period of silence invites us to reflect on our own lives and our need for forgiveness.

Confession is a process of letting go, forgiving others, and being forgiven by God.

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

All stand and sing.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Welcome and Announcements

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem (10:30 a.m.)

The Lord is my light, Peter Hallock

The Lord is my light, the refuge of my life and my salvation; of whom then shall I be afraid? If I take the wings of the morning, or go up into heaven, in the shadow of your wings I will rejoice and bless your holy Name; and I will sing of your Glory, O Lord my strength, as long as I live.

For the Beauty of the Earth

1. For the beau-ty of the earth, for the glo-ry of the skies,
2. For the beau-ty of each hour of the day and of the night,
3. For the joy of hu-man love, broth-er, sis-ter, par-ent, child,
4. For each per-fect gift of thine to our race so free-ly giv'n:
for the love which from our birth o-ver and a-round us lies:
hill and vale, and tree and flow'r, sun and moon, and stars of light:
friends on earth, and friends a-bove; for all gen-tle thoughts and mild:
grac-es hu-man and Di-vine, flow'rs of earth and buds of heav'n:
Christ, our God, to thee we raise this, our hymn of grate-ful praise.

The Great Thanksgiving

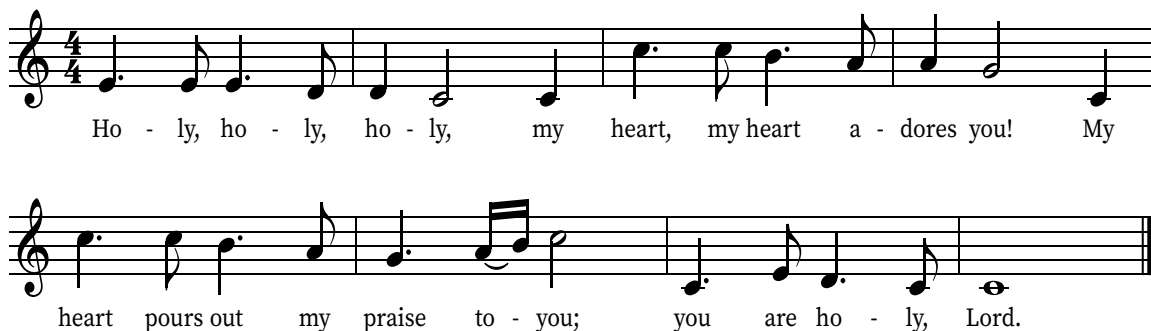

Enriching Our Worship I

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

All kneel or stand as able.

These words come from Scripture:

Matthew 26:26-29

Mark 14:22-25

Luke 22:14-20

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest.

If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and all join in singing the Fraction Anthem.

Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

At 10:30 a.m., if you are in need of confidential prayers, please come to the chapel to the right of the altar (the South Transcept).

At 10:30 a.m., a socially-distant communion table is set in the chapel to the left of the altar (the North Transcept).

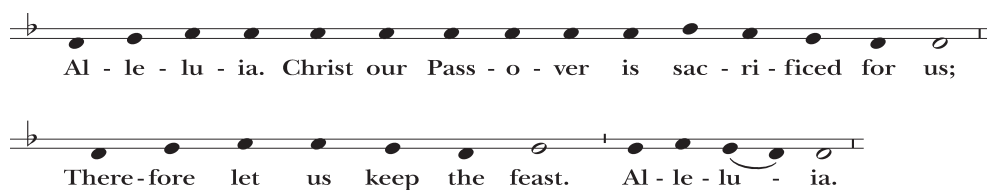

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

All stand. 1982 Hymnal.

We follow the cross into the world to be the hands and feet of Christ.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem, Hymn #S-152 (spoken at 8 a.m., sung at 10:30 a.m.)

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Music at Communion (10:30 a.m.)

Organ

Communion, César Franck

Hymn #691

Psalm 124

Chant: George M. Garrett

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

In Recession, Hymn #376

“Joyful, joyful, we adore thee” Hymn to Joy

The Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!

Closing Voluntary

Every piece in this collection has a story to tell. Created by students in the Cathedral Arts Project's visual arts programs, these works capture a creative spirit that's physical and immediate—transforming blank pages and canvases into expressions of hope, self-confidence and joy. Behind each piece is a young artist whose vision was shaped in classrooms across our community—and a story that, without the support of programs like these, may never have been written. See these stories for yourself, and celebrate the young artists behind them.
