Thank you for continually and faithfully bringing bags of groceries for The Market at St. Mary's. You can also scan the QR code here to conveniently donate via their Amazon Wish List!

TODAY — Twenty-Third Sunday after Pentecost "All Saints Sunday"

9:15am - Dean's Forum, Taliaferro Hall
This morning, we will talk about All Saint's Day, its history in the church and what it means to us as Christians. Dean Kate will talk about "How to Plan Your Funeral," and we will share some favorite hymns and scriptures. Join us and share yours! Next Sunday, Nov. 8, Dean Kate will speak about her newest book, "Double Helix."

11:45am - All Saints Prayer Service, Bishop's Garden
Join us as we remember those who have gone before us and celebrate the communion of saints.

11:45am - Loss of Spouse Grief Group, Room 305
If you have experienced the death of a spouse, we invite you to join us. For more information, contact Linda O'Dell at lodell@jaxcathedral.org.

12pm - Your Money in Transition: Building Financial Confidence for What Comes Next, Room 302
You'll leave with practical steps to help you feel more confident and in control of your finances as you move into your next chapter. Scan the QR code here to learn more and register.

Holiday Drive for Family Promise

When a family is evicted, they often leave everything behind. Family Promise helps these families find new homes. With the holidays near, they could use a little help making those homes feel festive. This November, our Outreach ministry invites you to donate holiday decorations and holiday-themed housewares. Ornaments, lights, wreaths, festive dishes, and table linens are all welcome.

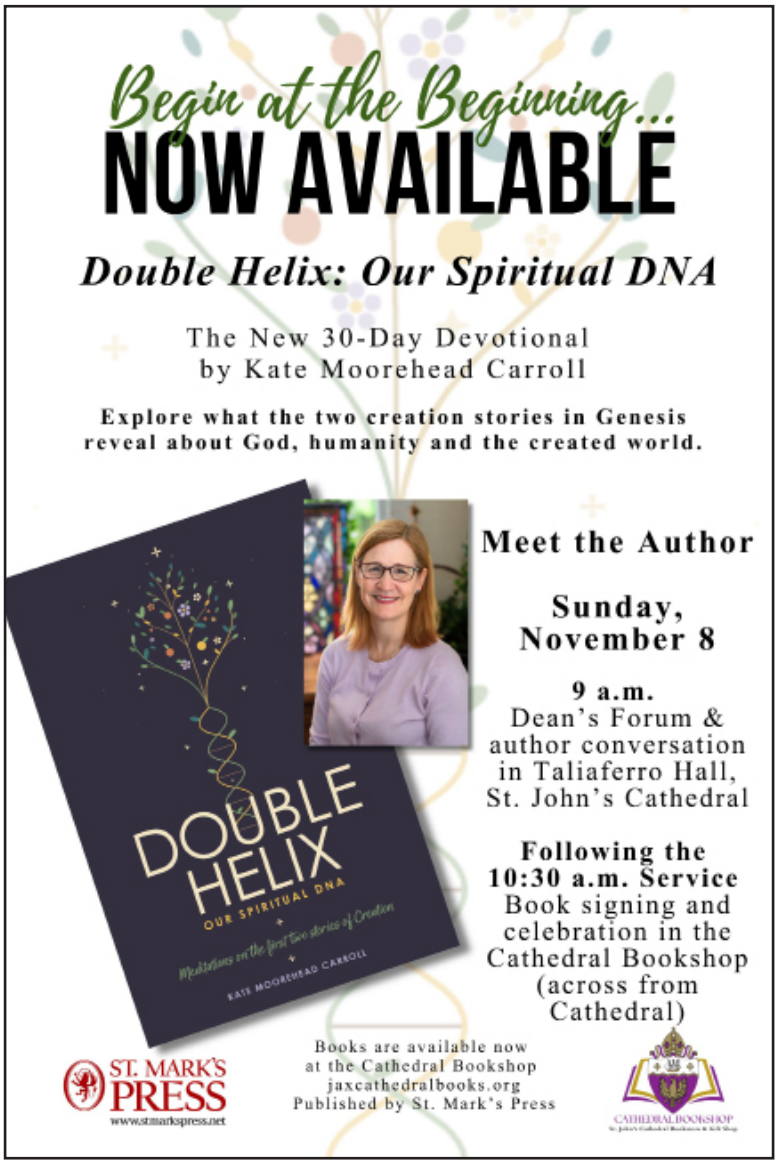

How to give: Bring your items to the Cathedral. Place them in the bin under the table across from the reception desk. Donations will be delivered to families each week from November 1 through December 13.

Thank you for helping a family celebrate in their new home!

Lenten Pilgrimage to Montgomery: A Courageous and Important Journey

Facilitators: Paul Arrington, Nicole Bryan, Linda O'Dell
March 12-14, 2027

This Lent, travel in community to learn at the Equal Justice Initiative, founded by Bryan Stevenson. His book, "Just Mercy" will be discussed on Sunday, November 8 after the 10:30 service. All pilgrims will gather, and we also welcome those who want to know more about the pilgrimage. To hold a seat on the bus, please give Linda O'Dell a $200 check made out to "St. John's Cathedral" with 'Pilgrimage' in memo line. This is a nonrefundable deposit towards cost. Estimated cost is Single room (~$775) or Double room (~$610). Scan the QR code here to order "Just Mercy" from the Cathedral Bookstore!

WELCOME

Whether you're visiting for the first time or you've been worshiping here for years, our welcome ministry, Engage@ JaxCathedral, is here to help you make a home for your faith at St. John's Cathedral.

Fill out the Welcome card in the pew back and place it in the offering plate, or complete the form online at jaxcathedral.org/welcome (or scan the QR code) so we can get to know you.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Opening Voluntary — Cortège et Litanie, Marcel Dupré

Introit (10:30 a.m.) — Hail, glorious spirits, heirs of light, Christopher Tye

Hail, glorious spirits, heirs of light, the high-born sons of fire,
Whose souls burn clear, whose flames shine bright: all joy, yet all desire.
Hail, all you happy souls above, who make that glorious ring
About the sparkling throne of love, and there forever sing.

In Procession, Hymn #287 (St. 1-4) "For all the Saints, who from their labors rest" Sine Nomine

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Blessed be God.
Forever and ever. Amen.
The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it.
Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad.
Our help is in the name of the Lord:
The Maker of heaven and earth.
I was glad when they said to me:
"Let us go to the house of the Lord."
The Spirit is here.
The promise of God.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.

This prayer changes each Sunday and summarizes a theme from today's Scripture readings.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

All sit.

The Lesson: Revelation 7:9-17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The Words of Holy Scripture.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-10, 22

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words. In worship, the psalm is often spoken together as a way of shaping our community's hearts.

I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
I will glory in the Lord; let the humble hear and rejoice.
Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; let us exalt his Name together.
I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me out of all my terror.
Look upon him and be radiant, and let not your faces be ashamed.
I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me and saved me from all my troubles.
The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, and he will deliver them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!
Fear the Lord, you that are his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing.
The young lions lack and suffer hunger, but those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good.
The Lord ransoms the life of his servants, and none will be punished who trust in him.

All stand.

Only a Holy God (8 a.m., refrain only)

At 10:30 a.m., the Cathedral Choir will lead the verses of this hymn, and we invite the congregation to join the Choir in singing.

1. Who else commands all the hosts of Heaven?
   Who else could make every king bow down?
   Who else could whisper and darkness trembles? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

2. What other beauty demands such praises?
   What other splendour outshines the Sun?
   What other majesty rules with justice? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel.

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Only a Holy God ((8 a.m. refrain only)

3. What other glory consumes like fire?
   What other power can raise the dead?
   What other name remains undefeated? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

4. Who else could rescue me from my failing?
   Who else would offer His only Son?
   Who else invites me to call Him Father? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

All sit.
A period of silence is kept following the sermon, and ushers will pass baskets to collect written names for the reading of the Necrology.

The Sermon — The Very Rev. Kate Moorehead Carroll

All stand.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying "We believe in you, God."

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

Let us pray for the Church and for the world, trusting that through the power of God's love, we may become whole.

For the earth that slowly spins, and for every nation that has claimed a space upon it; for peace where war rages, for reconciliation where estrangement exists, for refugees where homelands are unsafe. Help us care for the whole of creation: from the smallest ant to the largest whale. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For Jacksonville: for our neighbors downtown and in every neighborhood, for those who care for the unhoused, for public servants, and for those who keep our city running while others sleep. Help us become one community where love and grace abound. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For your Church on every continent, and especially for the Diocese of Florida and our bishop-elect, The Rev. J. Randolph Alexander, Jr.: that the Body of Christ, so often torn, may be stitched together in love, thread by thread and seam by seam. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For this Cathedral, and for everyone who calls this place home, that we may give to others as you have given unto us: inspire us to give our hearts, our time, and our resources. Help us become people who give freely and generously, for we have been shaped by God's abundance. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For those whose bodies are tired or in pain; for those whose minds are anxious or whose hearts are heavy; for the lonely, the grieving, and all who are in trouble. May they feel your healing hand upon them and the arms of this community around them. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For those who have died, and for those who love them: that they may be gathered at last into the wholeness of your kingdom, where every division ends, every wound is healed, and every tear is wiped away. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

Confession of Sin

All kneel or stand as able. A period of silence invites us to reflect on our own lives and our need for forgiveness.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Ever-loving God, we confess that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed. We have not loved you with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have done, help us to amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, that we may do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you, our God. Amen.

Confession is a process of letting go, forgiving others, and being forgiven by God.

This new text is taken from "Enriching Our Worship," a new addition the the "Book of Common Prayer."

May the God who is both power and love forgive you and free you from your sin, give you healing and strength, and raise you to new life in Christ. Amen.

The Peace

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Welcome and Announcements

THE HOLY COMMUNION

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

The Offertory Anthem (10:30 a.m.) Happy and blest are they (St. Paul), Felix Mendelssohn

Happy and blest are they who have endured.
For though the body dies, the soul shall live forever.

All stand and sing.

For the Beauty of the Earth (St. 1-2)

1. For the beauty of the earth, for the beauty of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies.
Christ our God, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

2. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night, hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light.
Christ our God, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

This Eucharistic Prayer C was updated and approved in 2022 by the Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music of the Episcopal Church.

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer C

God be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of all power, Source and Sustainer of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

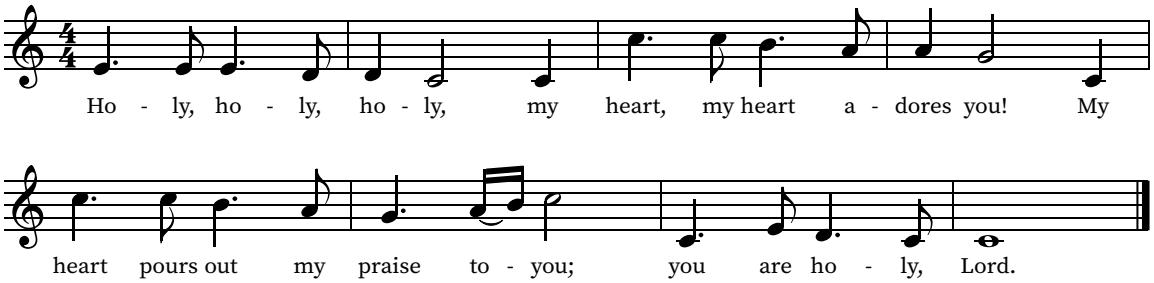

At your command all things came to be: shining light and enfolding dark; the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with the capacity for memory, reason, and skill. You made us the stewards of your creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your eternal Word, born of your servant Mary, to fulfill your Law, opening for us the way of freedom and peace.
By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

All kneel or stand as able.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

These words come from Scripture:
Matthew 26:26-29
Mark 14:22-25
Luke 22:14-20
1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Remembering now his work of redemption and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate Christ's death and resurrection as we await the day of his coming.

Therefore, O God, we who have been redeemed by Jesus Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Savior. Sanctify us also, and let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.
Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest.

If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

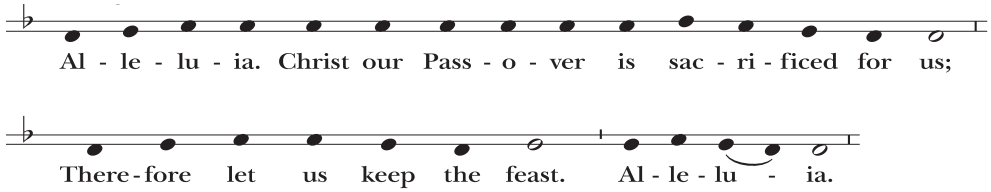

God of our ancestors; Redeemer and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only and not for strength; for pardon only and not for renewal. Accept these prayers and praises, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. Amen.

At 10:30 a.m., if you are in need of confidential prayers, please come to the chapel to the right of the altar (the South Transcept).

At 10:30 a.m., a socially-distant communion table is set in the chapel to the left of the altar (the North Transcept).

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem, Hymn #S-152 (spoken at 8 a.m., sung at 10:30 a.m.)

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and all join in singing the Fraction Anthem.

Today, during the distribution of Communion, we will read the names of our loved ones who have gone on ahead of us to heaven. They are our saints and we believe that they are spiritually present with us as we receive the body and blood of Christ.

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Reading of the Necrology

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

All stand. Hymnal 1982.

In Procession, Hymn #287 (St. 5-8) "For all the Saints, who from their labors rest" Sine Nomine

We follow the cross into the world to be the hands and feet of Christ.

The Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!

Closing Voluntary Toccata on Placare Christi servulis, Marcel Dupré

The flowers at the altar today are given to the Glory of God.

Immediately following the 10:30 a.m. service, we will have a special All Saints prayer service for those who have lost a loved one this year and for families with loved ones resting in the Bishop's Garden. All are welcome to attend.
