Last Sunday after Pentecost: Christ the King

SAINT JOHN'S CATHEDRAL
EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF FLORIDA

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF FLORIDA

Thank you for continually and faithfully bringing bags of groceries for The Market at St. Mary's. You can also scan the QR code here to conveniently donate via their Amazon Wish List!

TODAY Last Sunday after Pentecost
Christ the King

8am-1pm - Blood Drive, Market Street
This Blood Drive will benefit our partner cathedral in Havana, Cuba: The Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity. Through LifeSouth's "It Takes 15" matching program, with at least 15 successful donors, LifeSouth will give $300 to help meet needs of their parishioners! Walk-in's welcome.

4pm - St. Andrew's Festal Choral Evensong, Cathedral Nave
Join us for a festive celebration of the Feast of St. Andrew, patron saint of Scotland, as the St. John's Cathedral Choir, led by Tim Tuller, Canon for Music, presents its beloved annual service, featuring the Jacksonville Pipes and Drums. Rooted in centuries of Anglican tradition, Evensong is a service of evening prayer woven together with beautiful choral music, scripture, and prayer. Traditionally offered near sunset, it provides a peaceful opportunity to reflect on the day, give thanks, and prepare for what lies ahead.

Holiday Giving

Family Promise: When a family is evicted, they often leave everything behind. This November, our Outreach ministry invites you to donate holiday decorations and holiday-themed housewares. Ornaments, lights, wreaths, festive dishes, and table linens are all welcome.

How to give: Bring your items to the Cathedral. Place them in the bin under the table across from the reception desk. Donations will be delivered to families each week through December 13. Thank you for helping a family celebrate in their new home!

Angel Tree: This holiday season, visit the Angel Tree in the Narthex to learn how you can provide a gift to a child from the Child Guidance Center or the Remembered Foundation, a local organization serving children in foster care. Choose a child, and bring in a wrapped gift by 12pm on Sunday, December 13th. All are also invited to a wrapping party with The Remembered Foundation (12/17, 11am-9pm, Church of the Good Shepherd). Scan the QR code here to view an Amazon shopping list for The Remembered Foundation!

Dean's Forum in Advent

We know that Jesus was born and lived here on earth, and we await his coming again. So we wait between two worlds. And just to add a bit more to this, we struggle in Advent between the secular and spiritual celebration of Christmas.

During Advent, Dean Kate with address these topics in conversations with two panels. On Dec. 6, join her as she interviews Cathedral parents of children ages toddler through high school. On Dec. 13, join her as she interviews fellow clergy: Mark Anderson, Linda Privitera, and Tom O'Dell.

Crèche Art Exhibition

Dean Kate has invited our Cathedral family to fill Taliaferro Hall with crèches this Advent. The exhibition will feature crèches of many kinds, all on loan from our members. We would love to include yours! Bring your crèche to Room 301 any time this month, and label at least one piece with your name and phone number. The exhibition will open November 29 and close after Christmas. Questions? Contact Linda Privitera (lprivitera@jaxcathedral.org).

Next Sunday (11/29): Welcoming Advent

11/29, 9am-12pm - Advent Wreath Make & Take, Taliaferro Hall
Join us in Taliaferro Hall for the making of traditional Advent wreaths—a simple, beautiful way to mark each Sunday of Advent as we prepare our hearts for the birth of Christ. The wreath, with its circle of evergreen and four candles, symbolizes God's unending love and our journey toward the light of Christ coming into the world. Each week, another candle is lit, guiding us deeper into hope, peace, joy, and love.

11/29, 4pm - Advent Procession of Lessons and Carols
A cherished tradition marking the First Sunday of Advent, this service invites you to experience the beauty and anticipation of the season through candlelight, scripture, and music. As the Cathedral Choir moves through the church, the glow of candlelight gradually fills the space, symbolizing the journey from darkness into light and the hope of Christ's coming. Through beautiful choral music, familiar hymns, and readings that tell the story of God's promise, we move together through the themes of Advent—longing, hope, and the promise of new light.

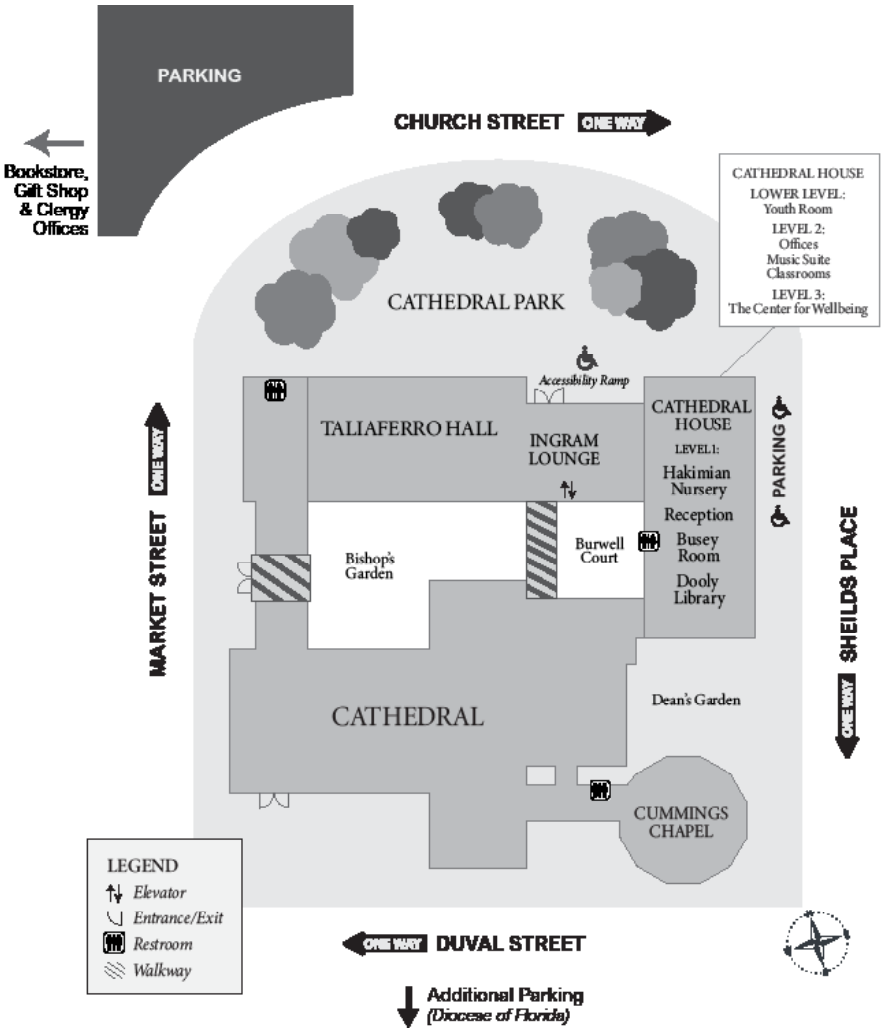

WELCOME

Whether you're visiting for the first time or you've been worshiping here for years, our welcome ministry, Engage@ JaxCathedral, is here to help you make a home for your faith at St. John's Cathedral.

Fill out the Welcome card in the pew back and place it in the offering plate, or complete the form online at jaxcathedral.org/welcome (or scan the QR code) so we can get to know you.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Opening Voluntary — Sonata No. 1 in F minor, Felix Mendelssohn
II. Adagio

Introit (10:30 a.m.) — O Jesus, king most wonderful, Christopher Tye

O Jesus, King most wonderful, Thou conqueror renowned, Thou sweetness most ineffable, in whom all joys are found! May every heart confess Thy Name and ever Thee adore and, seeking Thee, itself inflame to seek Thee more and more! Thee may our tongues forever bless, Thee may we love alone, and ever in our lives express the image on Thine Own.

Hymnal 1982

In Procession, Hymn #435 (8 a.m. St. 1-3) — "At the Name of Jesus " King's Weston

We follow a cross to worship as Jesus said, "Take up your cross and follow me."

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Blessed be God.
Forever and ever. Amen.
The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it.
Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad.
Our help is in the name of the Lord:
The Maker of heaven and earth.
I was glad when they said to me:
"Let us go to the house of the Lord."
The Spirit is here.
The promise of God.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.

This prayer changes each Sunday and summarizes a theme from today's Scripture readings.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All sit.

The Lesson: Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the Lord, have spoken.

The Words of Holy Scripture.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 100

Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
Know this: The Lord himself is God; he himself has made us, and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise; give thanks to him and call upon his Name.
For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

The Psalms are the Church's oldest hymnal and prayer book. Even before the Church existed, Jesus himself prayed these words. In worship, the psalm is often spoken together as a way of shaping our community's hearts.

All stand.

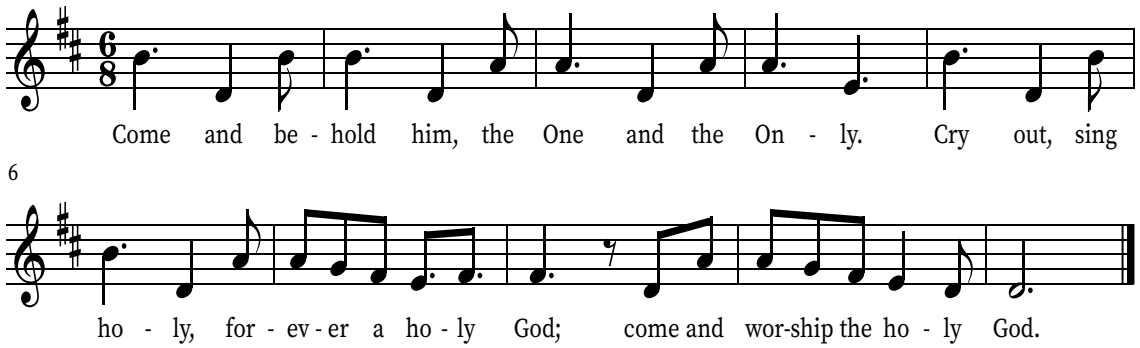

At 10:30 a.m., the Cathedral Choir will lead the verses of this hymn, and we invite the congregation to join the Choir in singing.

We sing, offering ourselves to God to prepare for the Gospel.

Only a Holy God (8 a.m., refrain only)

1. Who else commands all the hosts of Heaven?
   Who else could make every king bow down?
   Who else could whisper and darkness trembles? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

2. What other beauty demands such praises?
   What other splendour outshines the Sun?
   What other majesty rules with justice? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

The clergy read the Gospel in the midst of the congregation because in Jesus the Word of God was carried to the people.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 25:31-46

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus said, "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The good news of our Savior.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Only a Holy God (8 a.m. refrain only)

3. What other glory consumes like fire?
   What other power can raise the dead?
   What other name remains undefeated? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

4. Who else could rescue me from my failing?
   Who else would offer His only Son?
   Who else invites me to call Him Father? Only a Holy God. (refrain)

All sit.
A period of silence is kept following the sermon.

The Sermon — The Rev. Thomas O'Dell

All stand.
The Nicene Creed is a statement of trust, and not of certainty. We are saying "We believe in you, God."

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Prayers of the People are written by our clergy at the start of each season.

Let us pray for the Church and for the world, trusting that through the power of God's love, we may become whole.

For the earth that slowly spins, and for every nation that has claimed a space upon it; for peace where war rages, for reconciliation where estrangement exists, for refugees where homelands are unsafe. Help us care for the whole of creation: from the smallest ant to the largest whale. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For Jacksonville: for our neighbors downtown and in every neighborhood, for those who care for the unhoused, for public servants, and for those who keep our city running while others sleep. Help us become one community where love and grace abound. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For your Church on every continent, and especially for the Diocese of Florida and our bishop-elect, The Rev. J. Randolph Alexander, Jr.: that the Body of Christ, so often torn, may be stitched together in love, thread by thread and seam by seam. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For this Cathedral, and for everyone who calls this place home, that we may give to others as you have given unto us: inspire us to give our hearts, our time, and our resources. Help us become people who give freely and generously, for we have been shaped by God's abundance. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For those whose bodies are tired or in pain; for those whose minds are anxious or whose hearts are heavy; for the lonely, the grieving, and all who are in trouble. May they feel your healing hand upon them and the arms of this community around them. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

For those who have died, and for those who love them: that they may be gathered at last into the wholeness of your kingdom, where every division ends, every wound is healed, and every tear is wiped away. Heal us and mend us,
That we may become whole.

The celebrant adds a concluding prayer.

All kneel or stand as able. A period of silence invites us to reflect on our own lives and our need for forgiveness.

Confession is a process of letting go, forgiving others, and being forgiven by God.

This new text is taken from "Enriching Our Worship," a new addition to the "Book of Common Prayer."

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Ever-loving God, we confess that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed. We have not loved you with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have done, help us to amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, that we may do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you, our God. Amen.

May the God who is both power and love forgive you and free you from your sin, give you healing and strength, and raise you to new life in Christ. Amen.

The Resurrected Christ, when he appeared to the disciples, said these words.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Welcome and Announcements

As the altar is prepared for Holy Communion, please place your offering in the collection plate as it is passed. You may also give by texting "jaxcathedral $(amount)" to 73256, or use the QR code to give online. Thank you for your generosity.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem (10:30 a.m.) The Song of Christ's Glory, Philip Moore

Christ Jesus was in the form of God but he did not cling to equality with God. He emptied himself taking the form of a servant and was born in the likeness of men. Being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name above ev'ry name that at the name of Jesus ev'ry knee should bow in heav'n and on earth and under the earth; and ev'ry tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now and shall be forever. Amen. -Text: The South African Daily Office

All stand and sing.

For the Beauty of the Earth (St. 1-2)

1. For the beauty of the earth, for the beauty of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies.
Christ our God, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

2. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night, hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light.
Christ our God, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

This Eucharistic Prayer C was updated and approved in 2022 by the Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music of the Episcopal Church.

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer C

God be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

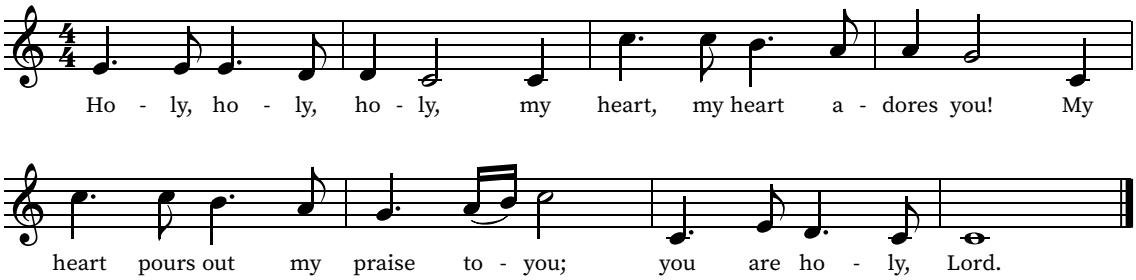

God of all power, Source and Sustainer of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: shining light and enfolding dark; the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with the capacity for memory, reason, and skill. You made us the stewards of your creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your eternal Word, born of your servant Mary, to fulfill your Law, opening for us the way of freedom and peace.
By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate Christ's death and resurrection as we await the day of his coming.

Therefore, O God, we who have been redeemed by Jesus Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Savior. Sanctify us also, and let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.
Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

God of our ancestors; Redeemer and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only and not for strength; for pardon only and not for renewal. Accept these prayers and praises, Almighty God, through Jesus

This ancient song, called the Sanctus, is sung by the angels in the book of Revelation.

The Sanctus is sung 3 times.

All kneel or stand as able.

These words come from Scripture:
Matthew 26:26-29
Mark 14:22-25
Luke 22:14-20
1 Corinthians 11:23-26

All who long for God are welcome to receive Communion. If you are not baptized, we invite you to speak with a member of the clergy about Baptism, the doorway into the Church's full sacramental life.

Everyone is also welcome to come to the altar for a blessing, indicated by folding your arms across your chest.

If you would like to receive communion and are unable to come to the altar, please ask an usher for assistance.

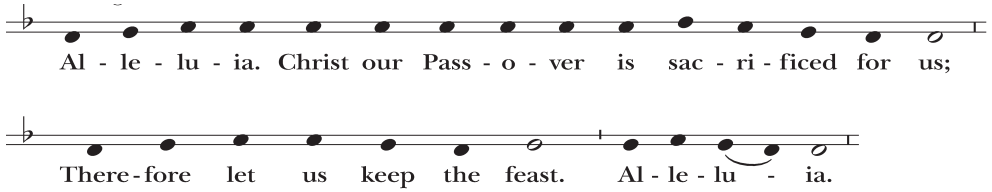

Please let clergy know if you would like a gluten-free wafer.

Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and all join in the Fraction Anthem.

The Fraction Anthem, Hymn #S-152 (spoken at 8 a.m., sung at 10:30 a.m.)

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

At 10:30 a.m., if you are in need of confidential prayers, please come to the chapel to the right of the altar (the South Transcept).

Music at Communion (10:30 a.m.)

Anthem "Sovereign Lord, Creator, Righteous One" arr. Mary McDonald
St. John's Celebration Choir

At 10:30 a.m., a socially-distant communion table is set in the chapel to the left of the altar (the North Transcept).

Hymn #458 "My song is love unknown" Love Unknown

Psalm 100 Chant: John Stainer

Prayer of Sending and Service

Let us pray.
Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

We thank God for the gift of Christ's body and blood.

The Blessing

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

All stand. Hymnal 1982.

In Procession, Hymn #494 (8 a.m. St. 1-3) "Crown him with many crowns" Diademata

We follow the cross into the world to be the hands and feet of Christ.

The Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!

Closing Voluntary Trumpet Tune, Craig Phillips

The flowers at the altar today are given to the Glory of God.

Realm is an online church community where we can connect with each other outside our Sunday gatherings. We'd love for you to take part! Connecting on Realm gives you access to register for upcoming events, join ministry groups, and manage your giving. To request an account setup link, contact Linda O'Dell at lodell@jaxcathedral.org

Pastoral Care

If you are in need of pastoral care, visit jaxcathedral.org/pastoral-care to complete the request form, and we will respond quickly and confidentially. If you have an emergency and want to reach a priest, please call (904) 356-5507 and press 4.
